Dear Mark,
Hee! I have to fill this page for me. I'll have to be reserving this page for me. That was very thoughtful of you. We've gone through a lot together this year. A whole year of Algebra II and English together. You never did remember what happened that fri. before your head. Well, I'll never tell you. Hows your arm? Your head? Just that for you! It kills you! I hope you're marching band next year is some classes together. Well I've got to be is not very good. Here a great summer! (I'm not being original) I hope we see each other over the summer!
Bye, Shelley

Mark (Zlu Zlu, & Zlub Zlub)
Well, this year has been a real experience, hasn't it? Election Board - and all I mean. I'm glad we got to become pretty good friends this year. Algebra was a crack-up don't you think. And remember no way baby (Mrs. B.) Maybe I'll see this summer when I drive by, ok?

Mark-

It was great getting to know you this year and having you in English. I'm sorry I didn't get to know you better though. You are a very nice guy. Good luck in your senior year. (Enjoy it as much as you can 'cause it goes by so fast.)

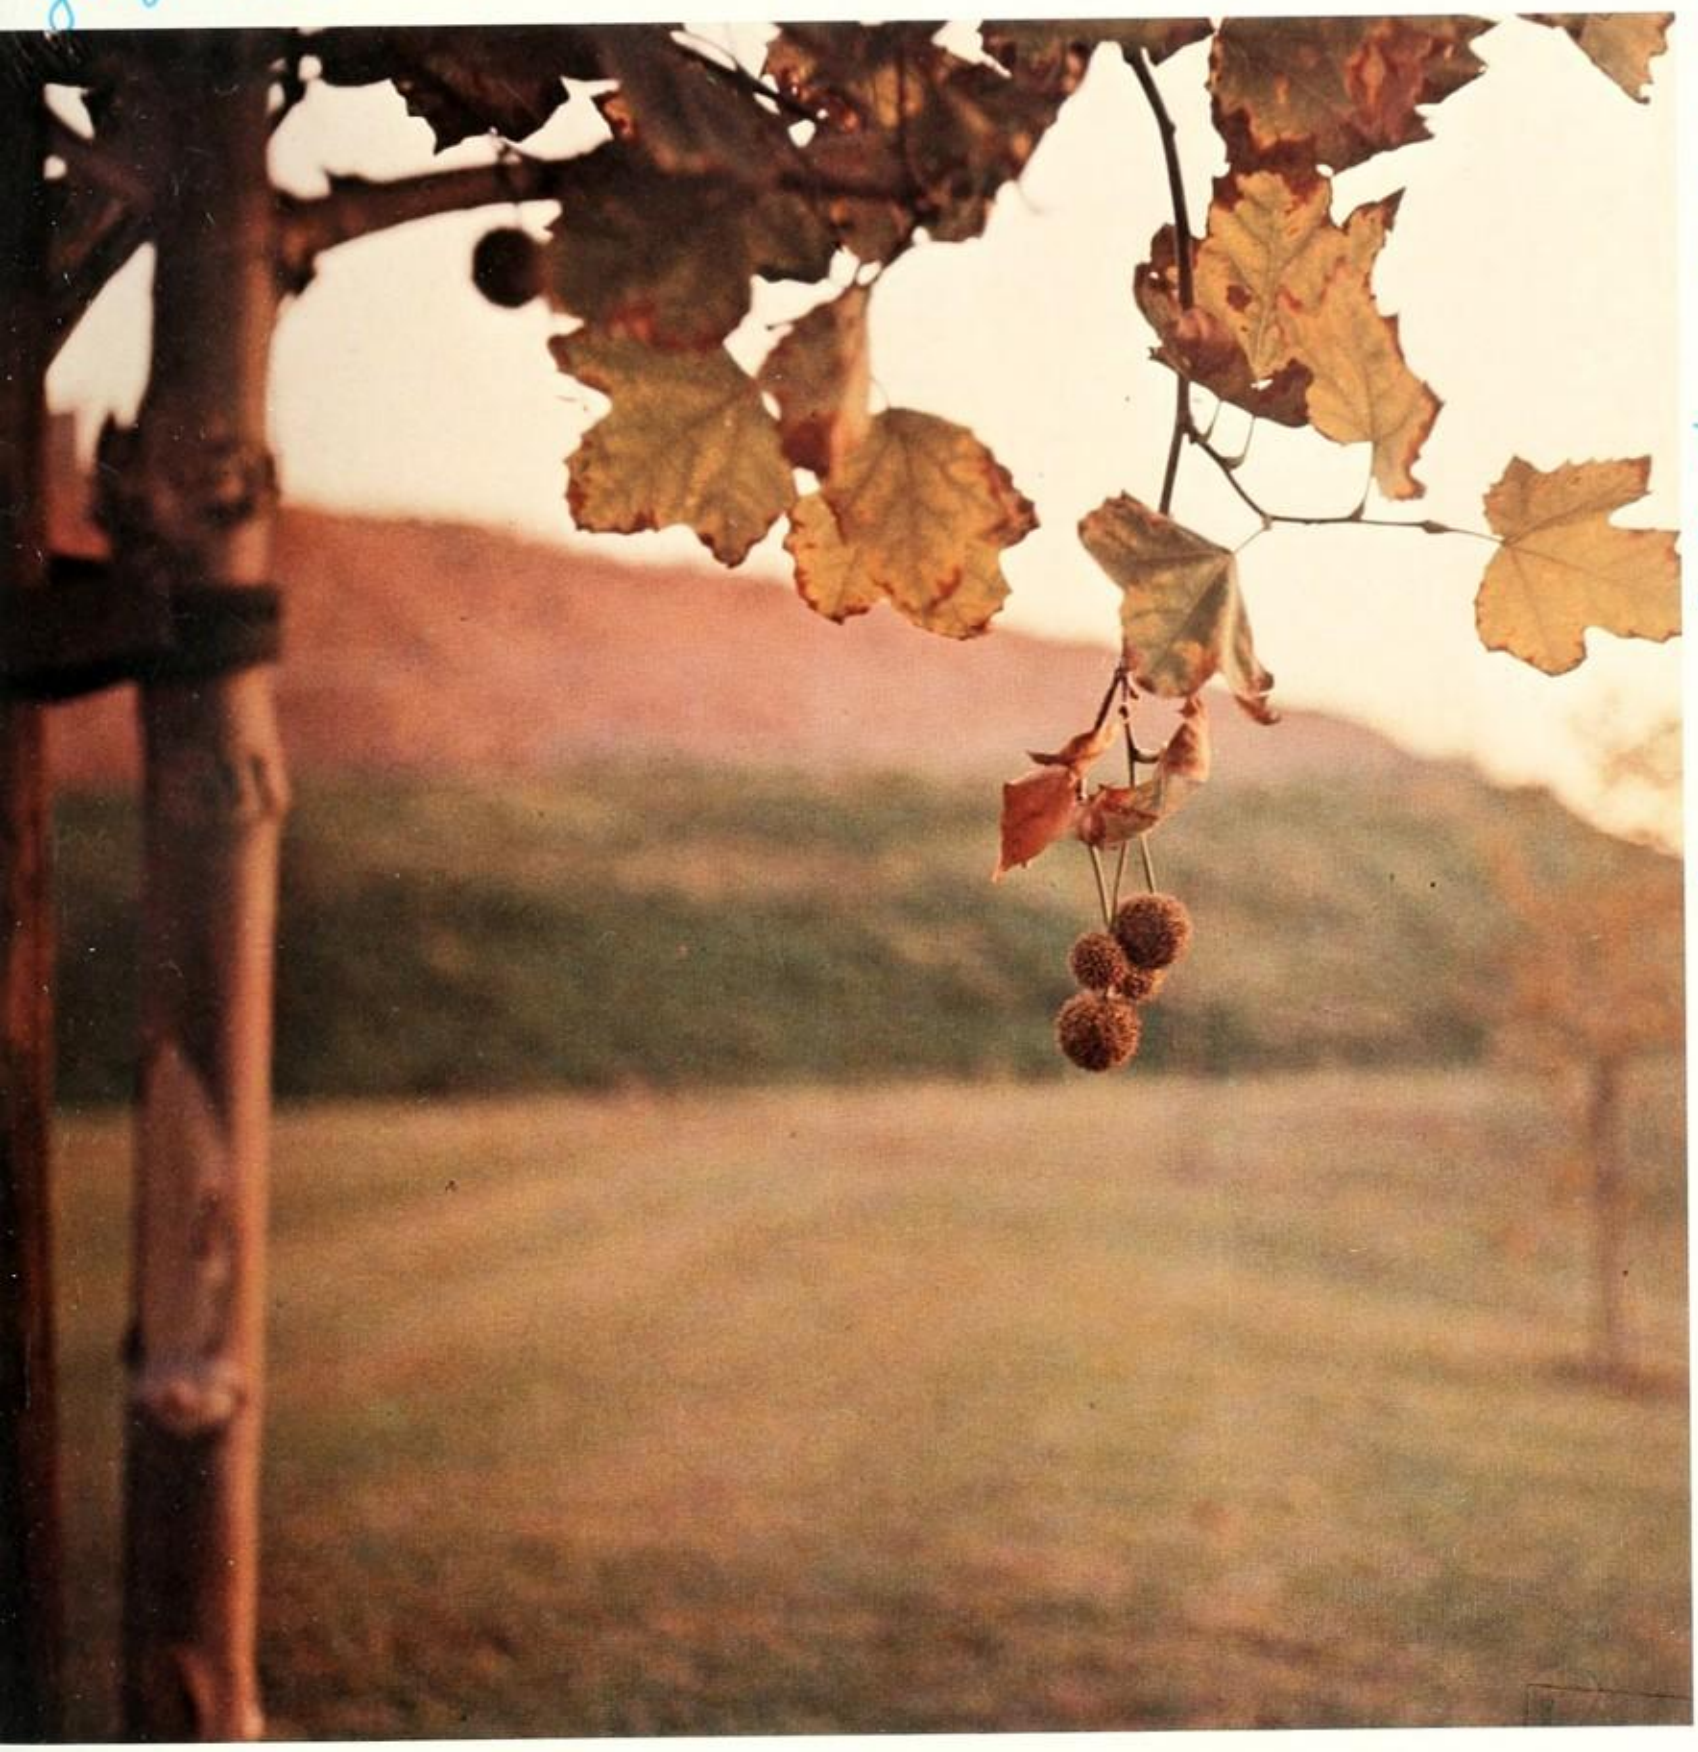
I don't know why I wrote that - I've never called you "Markie" before - I just felt like it! This year has gone so fast! And before you know it next year will be even better! And here again. I know this summer will be fantastic also - There is much I can say except you are a guy who has a lot upstairs. — Stay cool this summer because it will be hot! Good luck always —



There's one more thing I want to say - I'm glad you're my friend.

Love and God Bless,

Dear Mark,

Well what can I say? One of the best things that happened to me this year was meeting you in art and becoming your friend. We really had some good times didn't we? I've changed my mind about taking art so maybe we'll be in the same class next year. I hope so. Good luck as a senior Mark, and God bless you always because you're such a wonderful person.

Let us be the first to give a friendly sign, to nod first, smile first, speak first, and — if such a thing is necessary — forgive first.

I have often asked myself the reason for the sadness in a world where tears are just a lullabye. If there's any answer, maybe love can end the madness, maybe not, but we can only try.

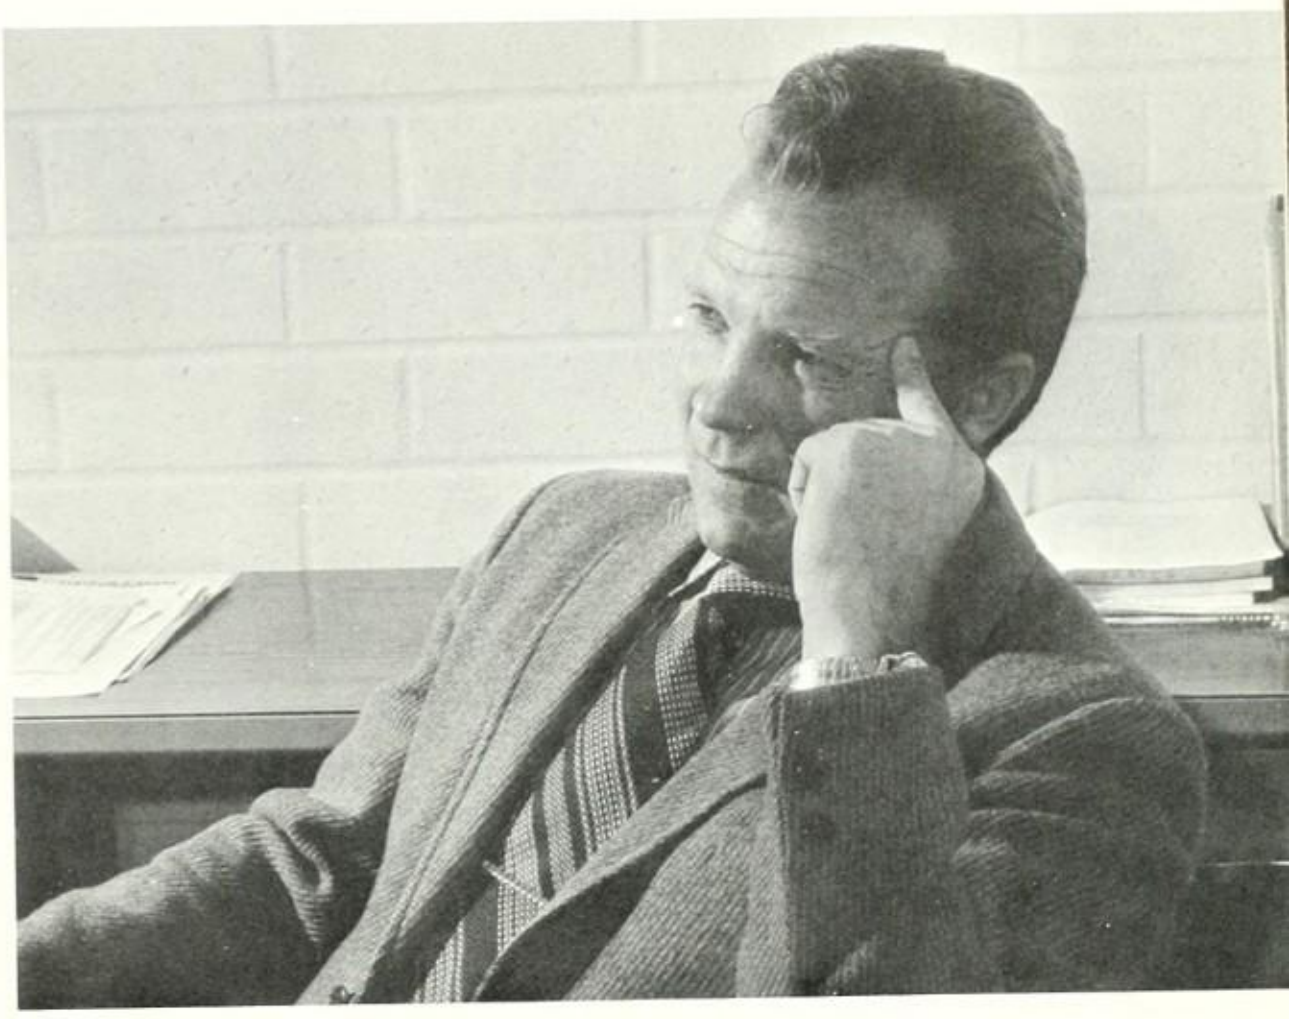
Dr. Robert L. French

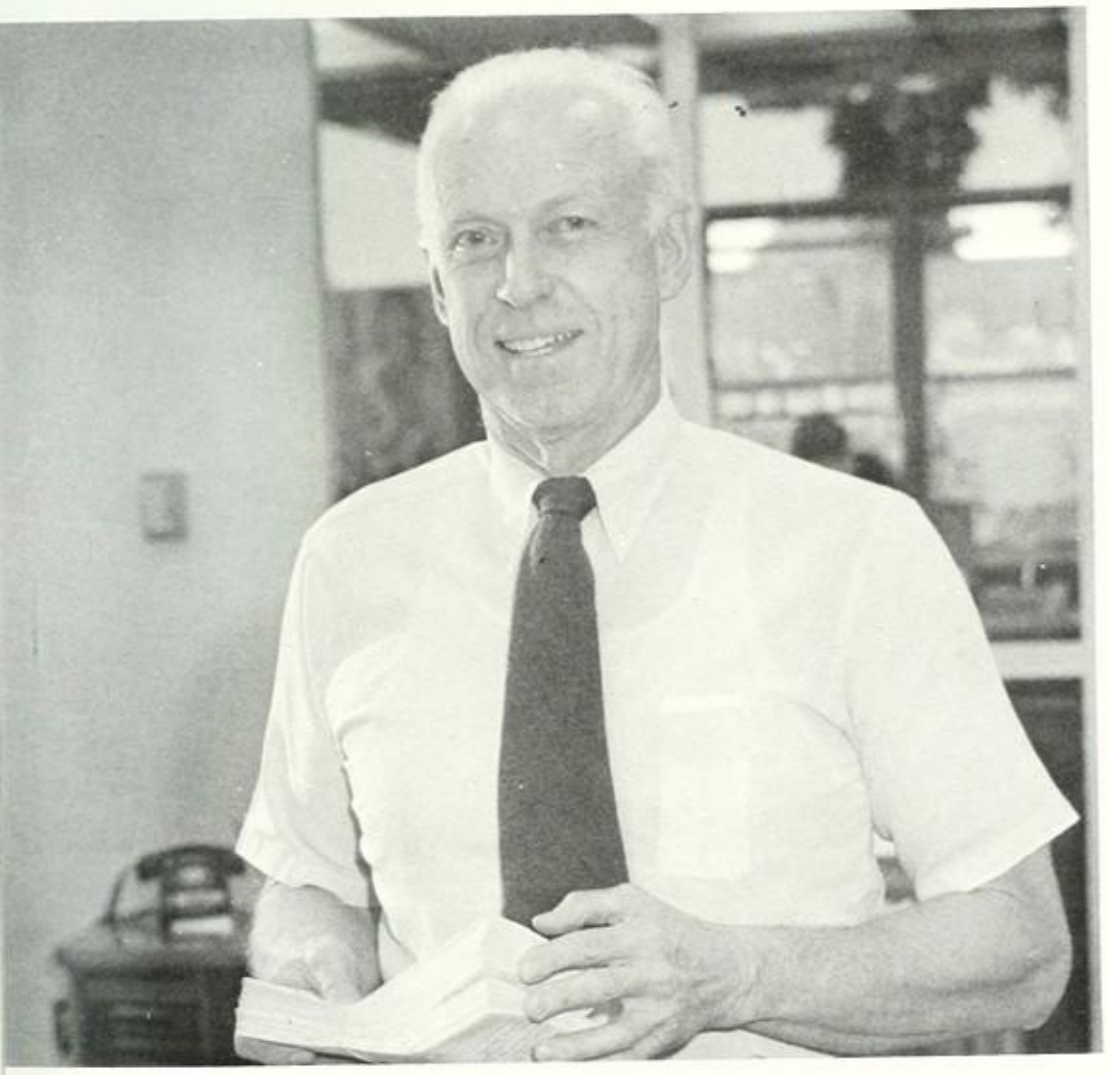
Principal

Dr. Robert L. French's fourth year at Fullerton has proved to be successful, including his appointment as assistant professor at the University of Southern California. He has shown considerable interest for the welfare of students at Fullerton by promoting change and revitalization of the various departments to provide relevancy and promote student interest. This year it was evident that Dr. French considered every individual important. His friendly attitude and desire to discuss problems with students added enthusiasm to our campus.

Mr. Barney Stratton



Mr. Richard Jackson



Mr. George Fowler

Assistant Principals

Previously an assistant principal at Buena Park High School, Mr. Stratton completed his first year at Fullerton as Assistant Principal of Pupil Personnel Services. His new occupation included the administration of personnel departments, which were counseling, guidance, and attendance. Mr. Stratton's first year proved to be a reputable one.

Also terminating his third year at FUHS was Mr. Jackson, Assistant Principal of Instructional Services. An important function of his job this year was working with the Executive Board at their meetings on Thursdays. Through his guidance the board was able to conduct meetings competently and plan student activities throughout the year.

A familiar face on campus this year was Mr. Fowler, Assistant Principal of School Services. His occupation involved maintenance of the entire school and the attainment of student discipline. Ending his thrid administrative year at Fullerton, Mr. Fowler was known to all as a friendly, outgoing, and sincere person. Through his cooperative attitude, problems were solved efficiently and without tension.

Faculty

With the addition of 10 new teachers, education at Fullerton saw many improvements this year. New classes were added to the curriculum, such as project science, home construction, and the U.S. History elective program. All of these changes were brought about by the influence of teachers and students. Requests for improvements in U.S. and World History, Sophomore English, Science and Business Education were fulfilled. Many teachers welcomed the change while others felt insecure because of the change in conditions and subjects taught. The atmosphere among students and teachers was very cooperative and the faculty achieved successful results.

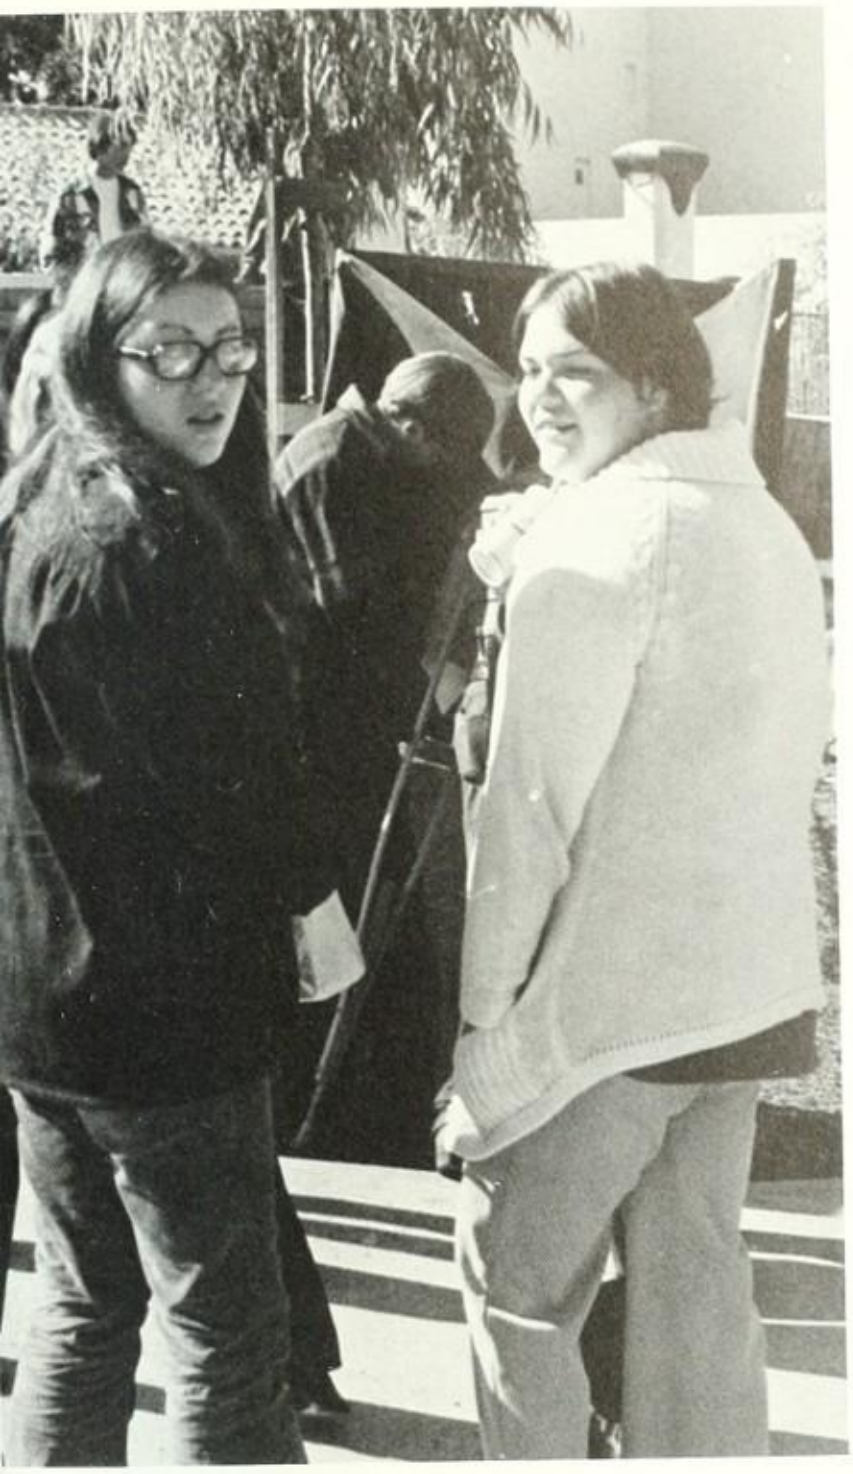
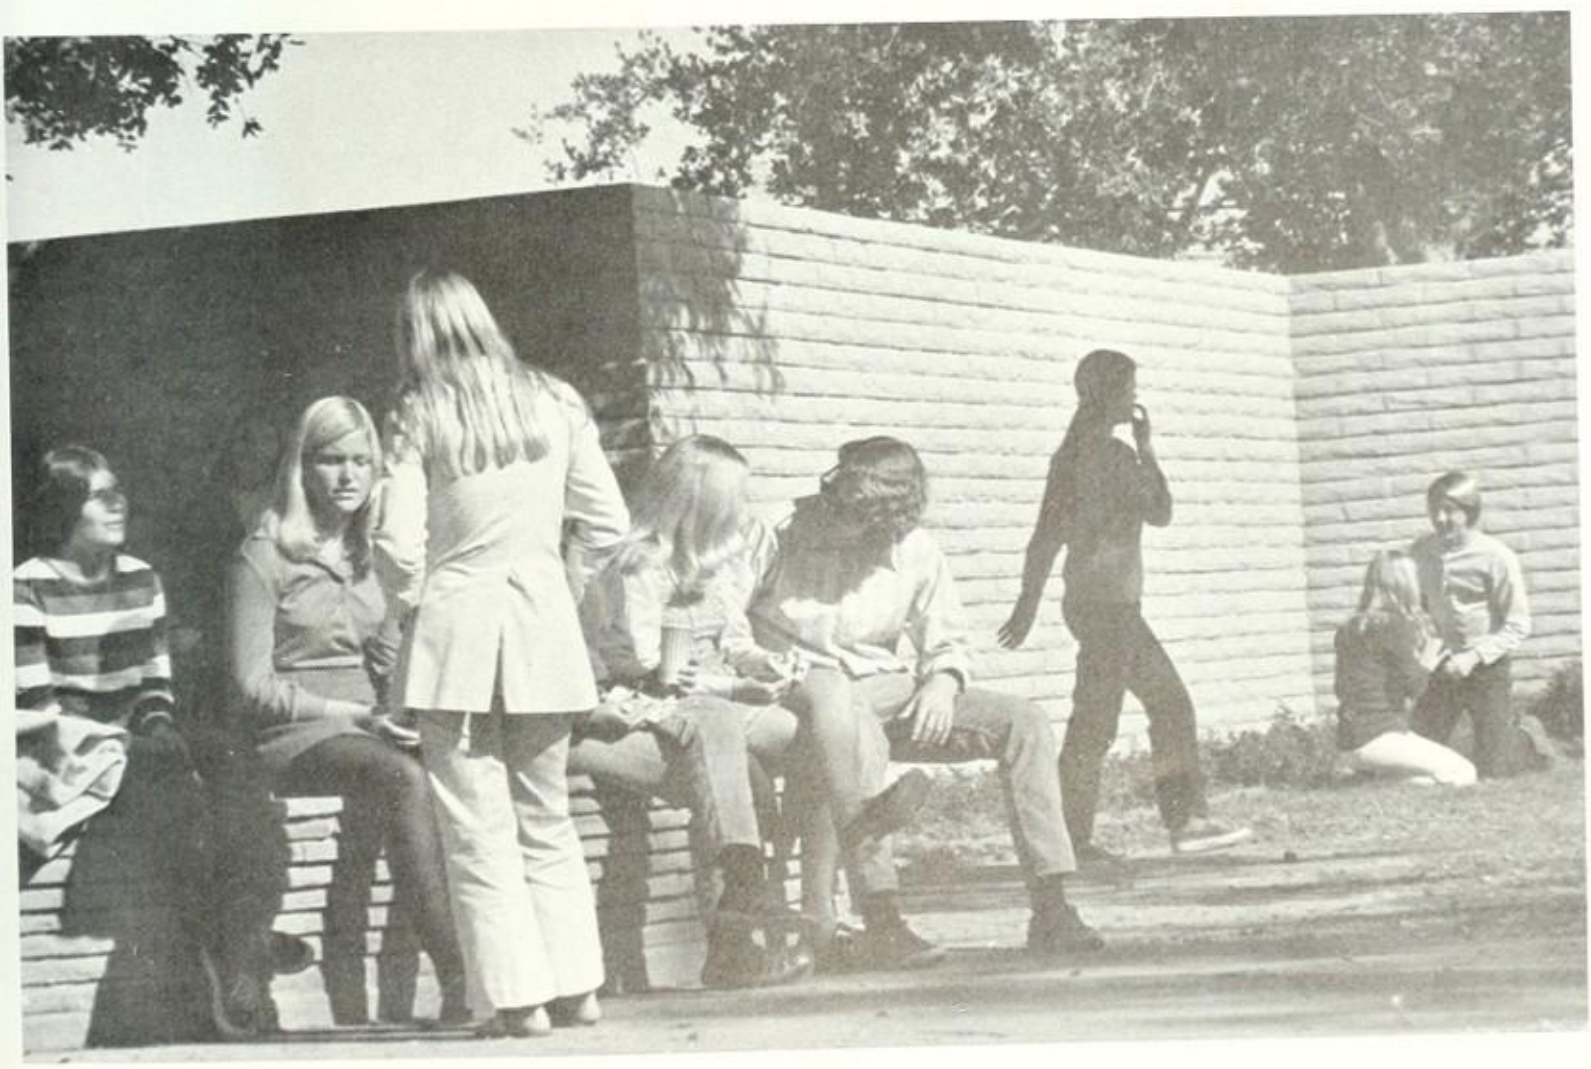
student life



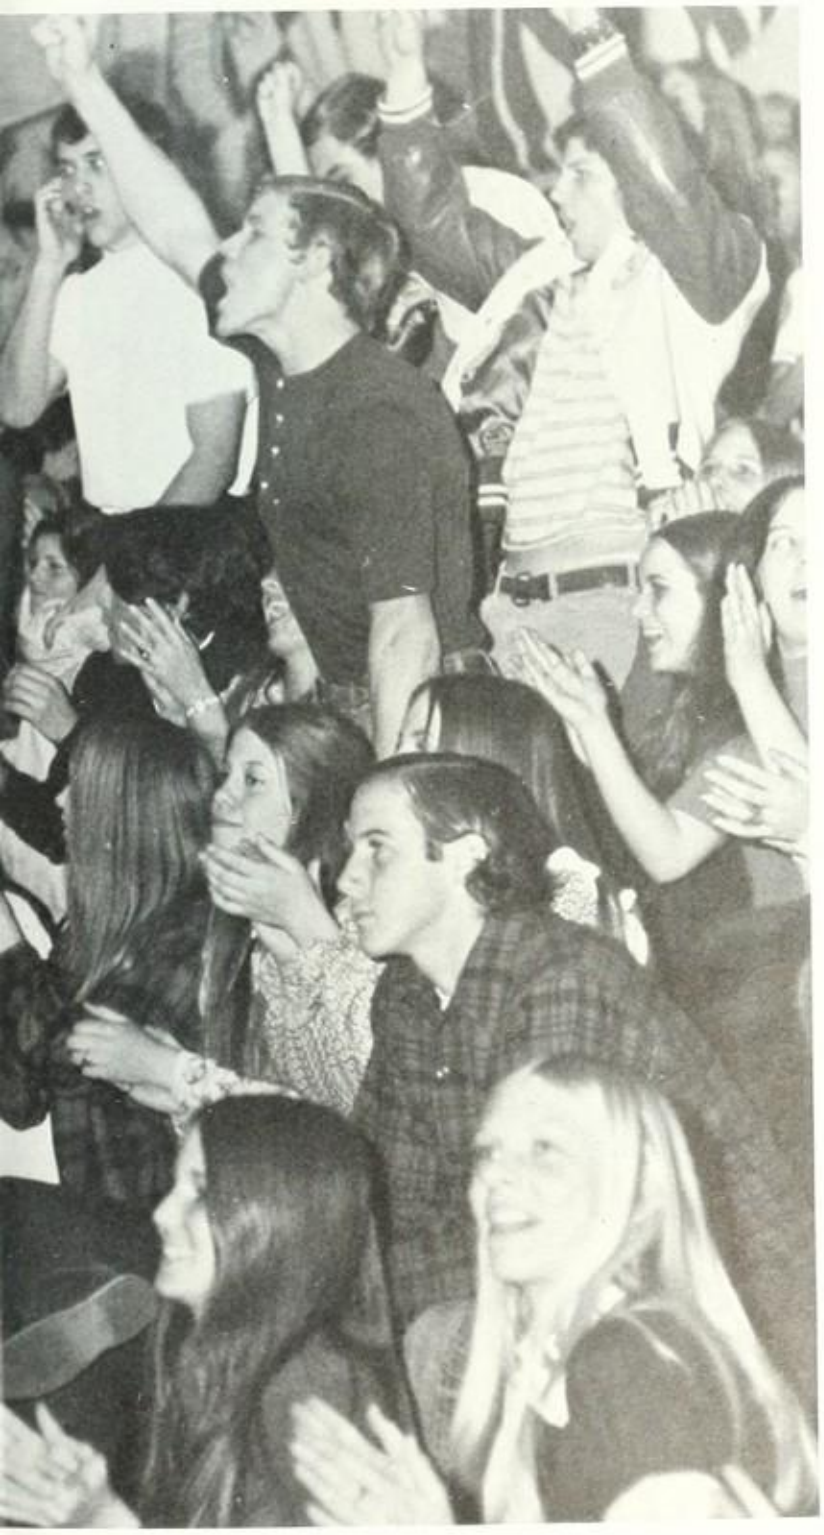
"The turning points in our lives are not the great moments. The real crises are often concealed in occurrences so trivial in appearance that they pass unobserved."

William E. Woodward

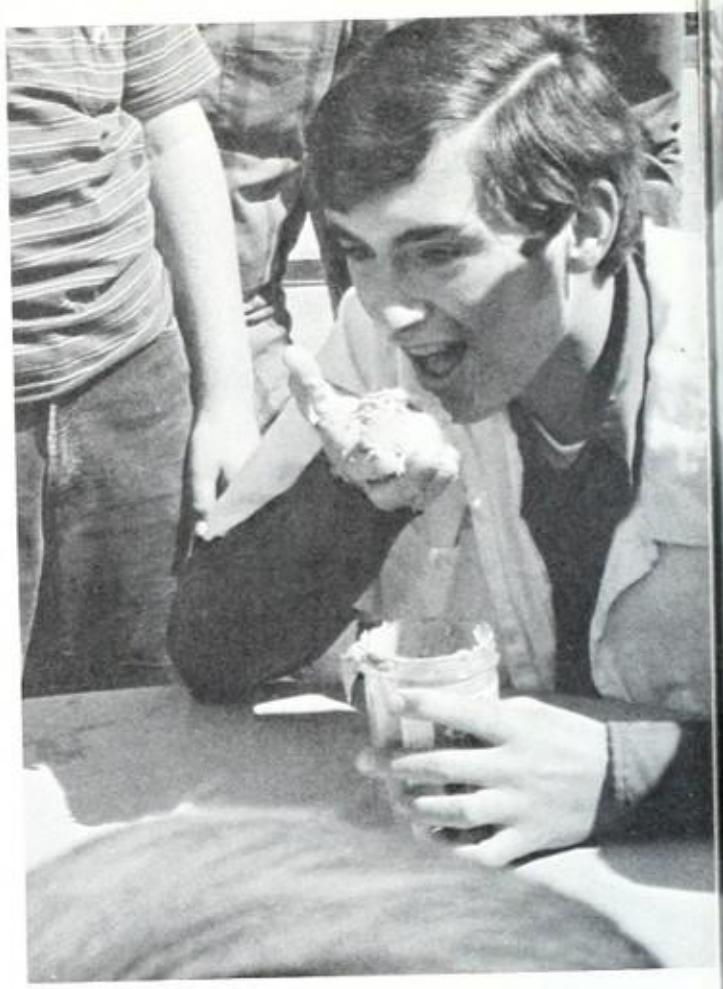


Spirit

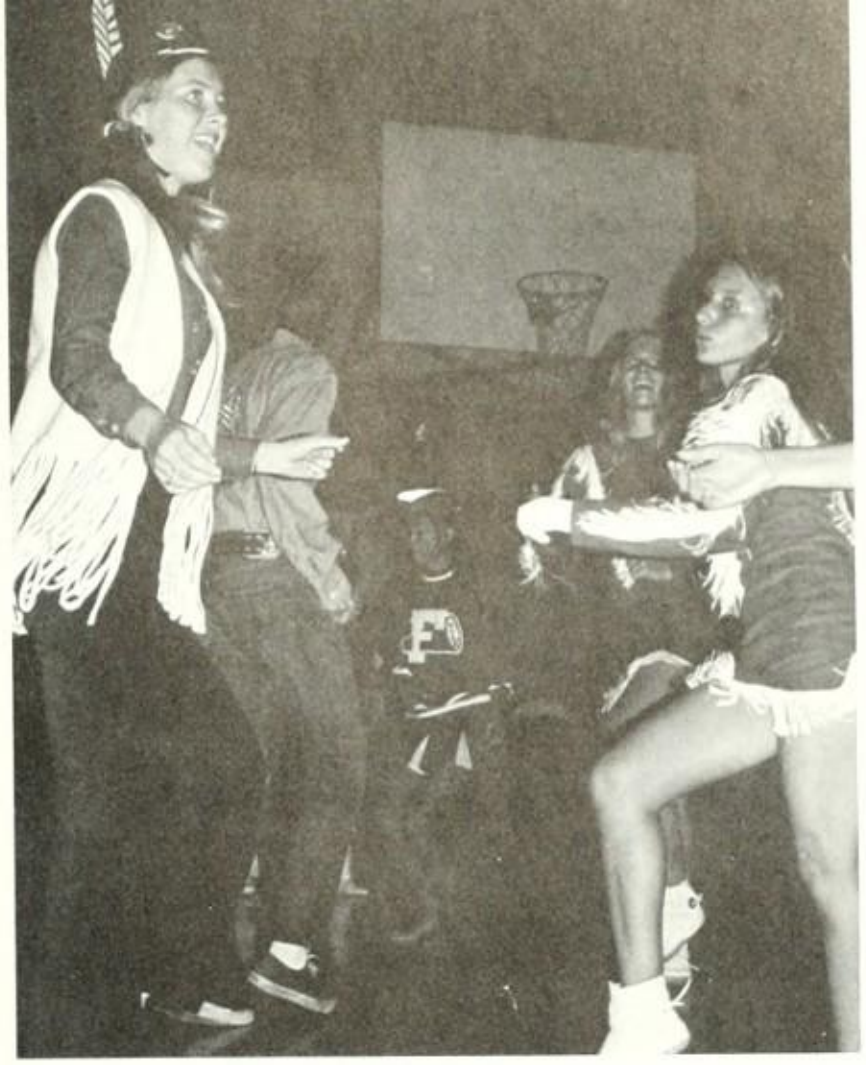
Roberta's eye!!



Spirit Week



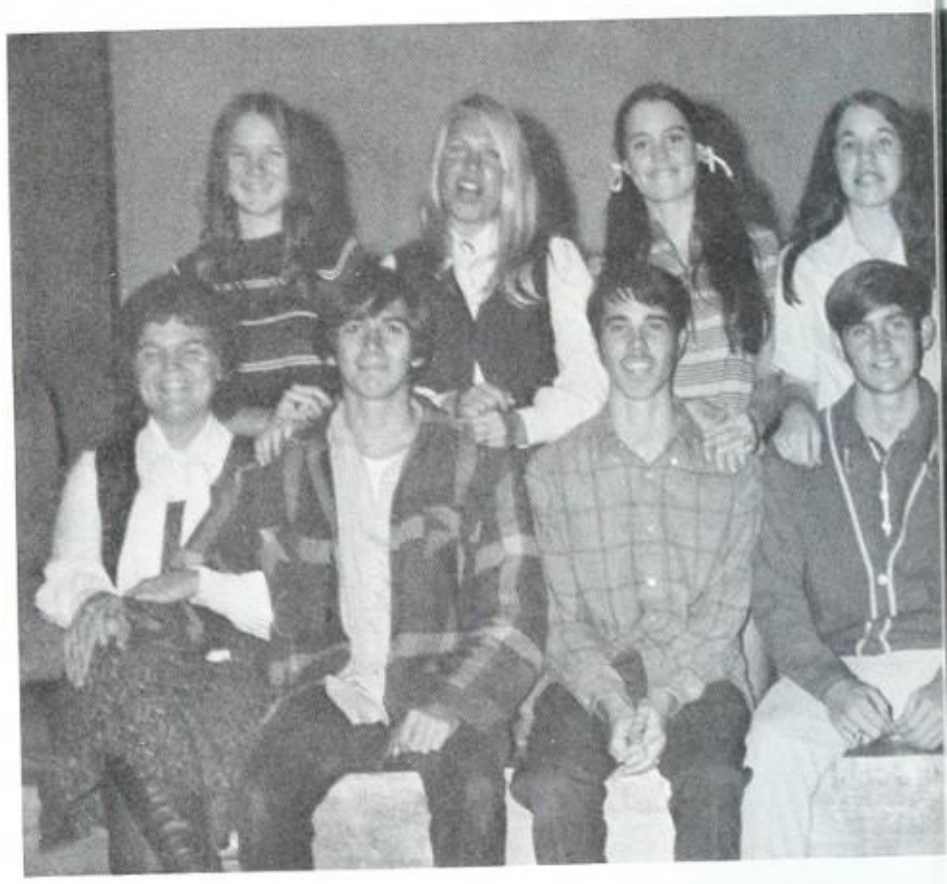
Spirit Week is a tradition at FUHS which starts the Indian fires burning for the big football game against our chief rival, Sunny Hills. Some of the exciting events planned this year included: very big boys on very small tricycles, a penny race in which the Jr. class was victorious, and a peanut butter eating contest which left our student body leaders speechless. The week ended with a pep assembly, and, of course, the big football game.

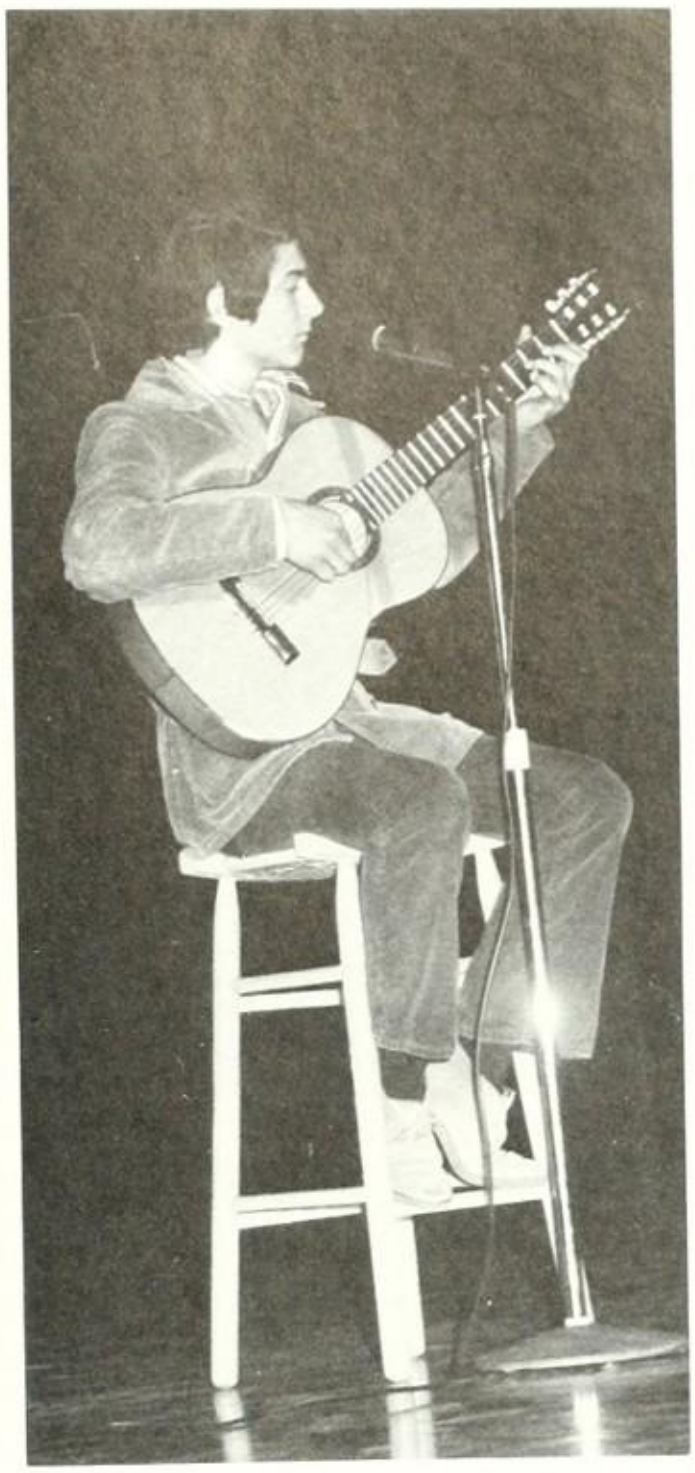


Stag Dances

Anne Frank

Anne Frank, the poignant story of a young girl growing up in Holland during World War II, tells of the terror, heartbreak, and hopelessness that war brings and of a young girl who, despite her hardships, still believes that "people are really good at heart." In the FUHS production of the play, the title role of Anne was touchingly portrayed by Lisa Kalson. Rick Chastain played the part of Anne's first lover, Peter. Gena Kuenzli and Curtis Buck played Anne's parents, the Franks. Peter's parents, the Van Daans, portrayed by Connie Graffis and Steve Premo, brought out the human comedy in the tragedy of self-centeredness. Sandy Stevenson and Brad Hiltscher as Anne's sister, Margot, and Mr. Dussel respectively, contrasted the goodness and ability to get along, with the high and mighty selfishness of the dentist. Carol Hybl as Meip, and Jon Bouvia as Mr. Kraler, represented the good people in the world who bravely fought for what they believed in. It was they who hid the Jewish family during the German occupation of Holland. The play dealt with many problems we face today, including prejudice, war, parental relationships, growing up, and finding love.





Talent Show

With the call "curtain-up," the jitters began for the 23 acts competing in this year's Thespian-sponsored Talent Show. The Talent Show was presented before an audience of over 700 in Plummer Auditorium. The show, in planning since December when a group of teachers did the preliminary judging of the acts, had its share of wavering moments. For example, two days before their January 28th opening night, the date was canceled because Plummer was not ready for use. The show, postponed until February 25th, came off beautifully despite the January 28th-dated programs and tickets. The judges had to take an extra thirty minutes to decide on the winners; this decision is always a very hard one because of the many and varied talents of FUHS student body. This year's talent show winners were Brad Hiltscher capturing first with a singing and Flamenco guitar act, Greg Richter, an extremely talented pianist, in 2nd place, and 3rd place won by a folk band consisting of Ellen Burns, singing, Beth Anderson on the flute and Judy McKibbin accompanying them on the guitar. Marty Headman, Diane Tudge, Mike Overman, Kathy Royer, and Ellen Burns' Band combined to entertain a very receptive audience during the judging.

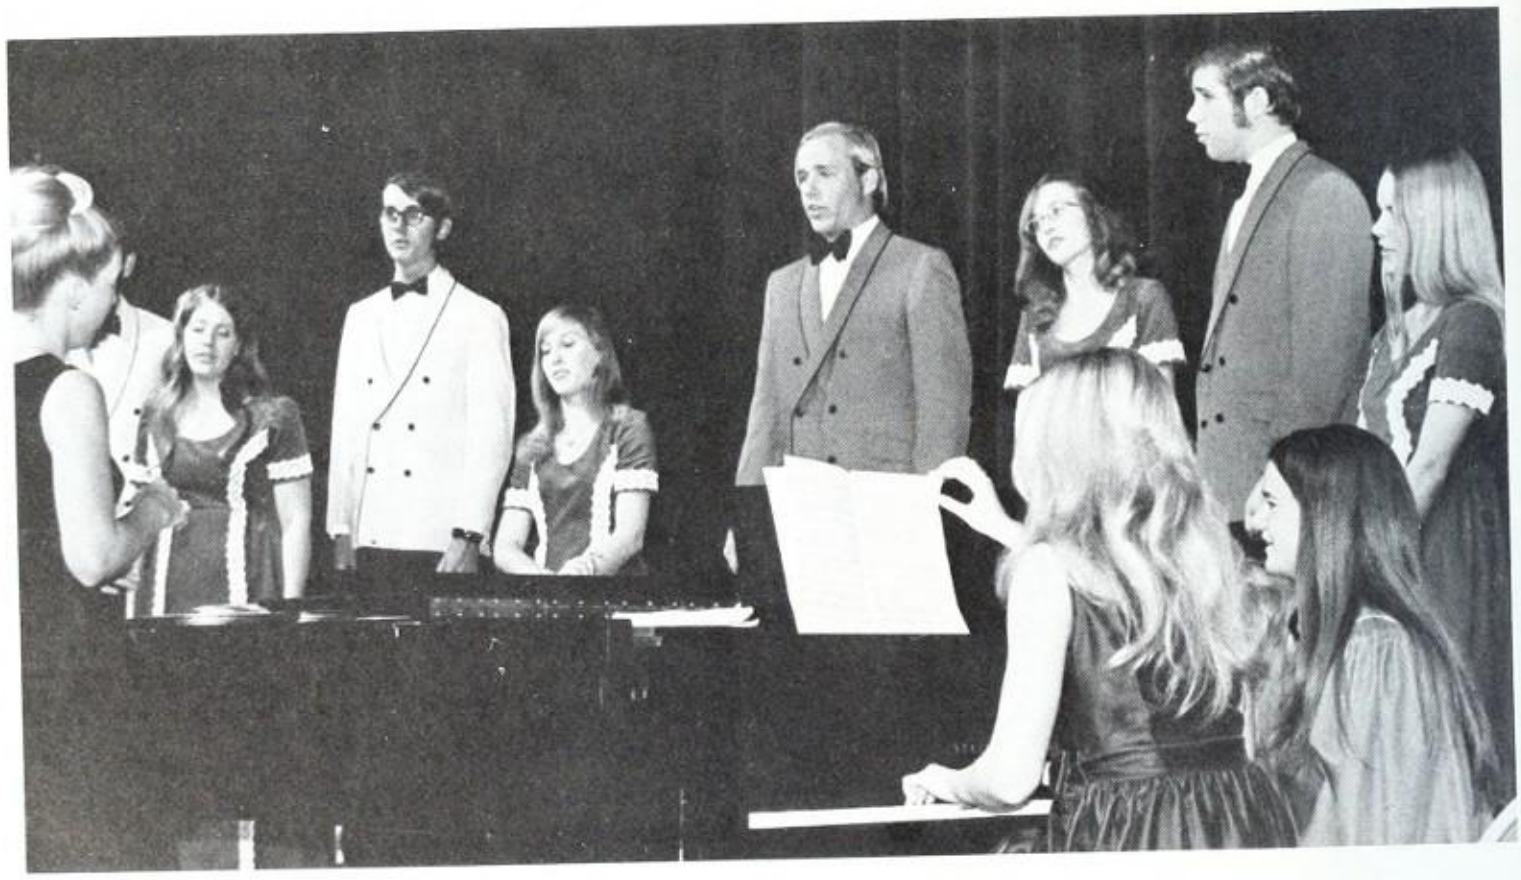
Retiring Teachers

Mr. Robert Strange, Mrs. Jo Murray, Mr. Larry Myers. NOT PICTURED: Mr. George Burt, Mr. Norman Cottom.

This year FUHS has five retiring teachers. Fullerton High will be losing spirit, dear friends, friendly faces, and the many memories kept alive by these devoted teachers. Each teacher has been here at least 20 years; the years of service from all five teachers total 140 years, longer than the school itself has been here. Mr. Strange has taught History since 1937—35 years. His wit and humor have carried many unwilling students through a year of American History with smiles. He feels one of his triumphs was keeping in Plummer the memorial plaque of the FUHS student heroes who died in World War II. Mrs. Murray has been at Fullerton for 24 years. She first taught modern dance and then switched to counseling, which she enjoys because of her interest in dealing with people. Mr. Myers, who has taught Languages here for 36 years, has accumulated over 200 days of unused sick leave. Students recognized him by the spirited red coat he wars each Friday. Mr. Burt taught instrumental and choral music from 1945 until 1960. He now teaches History and has been Key Club advisor for 20 years. After retiring he hopes to give free instrumental lessons to handicapped children. Mr. Cottom, All-American Basketball player at Purdue, has taught at FUHS for 20 years. He was Fullerton's varsity Basketball coach for 3 years. Mr. Cottom taught Economics and was Social Studies Department head for 8 years. Pleiades wants to thank these teachers for their tireless efforts. When they leave, some of Fullerton High goes with them.

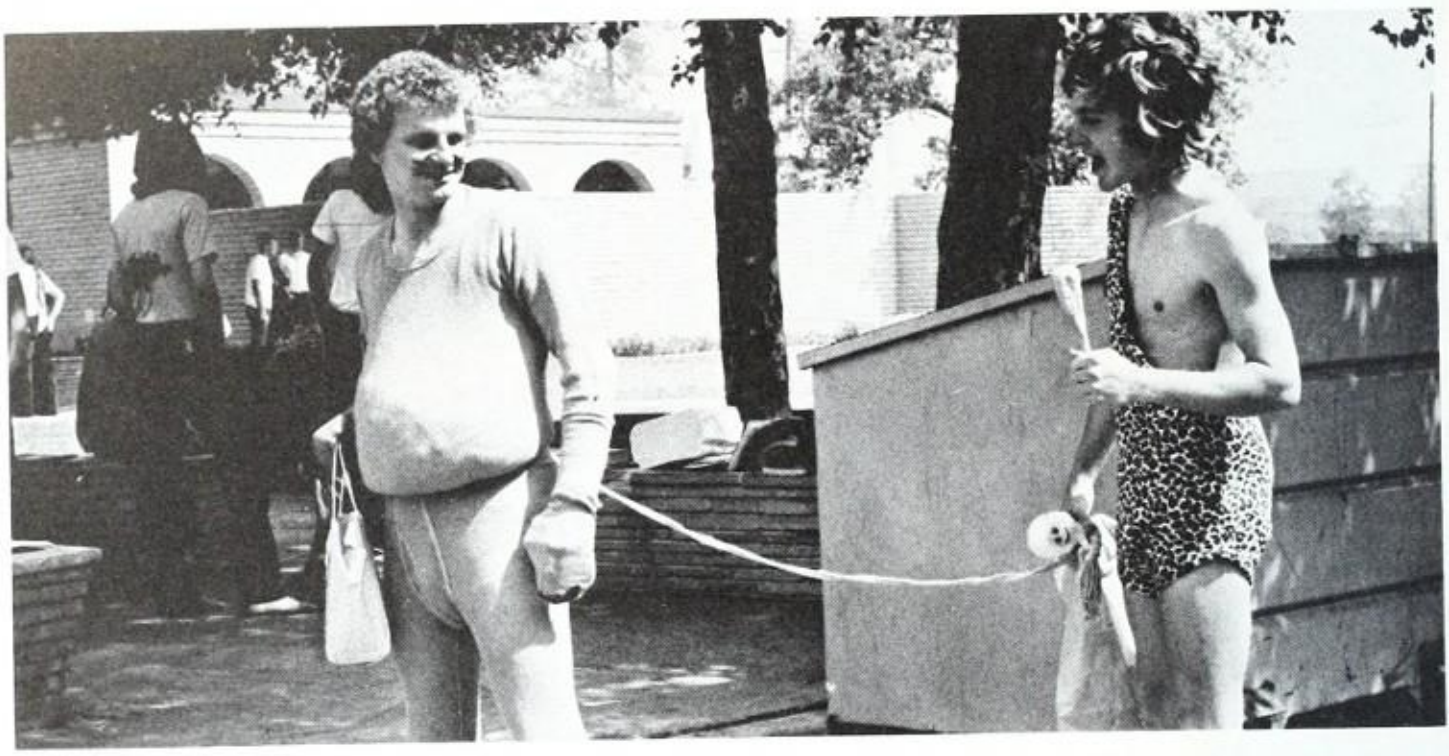
Christmas rang thru FUHS halls, started by the freshmen who sold cheesecake photos of students on Santa Claus's (Mr. Fowler's) lap. Elvish Idakas collected spare pennies to give needy families a real Christams. The seniors got the seasonal spirit and decorated a Christmas Tree on Senior Corner. The stag dance was turned into a Christmas party where every good little FUHS boy or girl sat on Santa's (Greg Plambeck's) lap and got a candy cane. Everyone got a turn under the mistletoe. Before the dance the drama department presented STAR SONG, a one act play retelling the traditional nativity story. The play is set outside Bethlehem in an inn owned by Tirza (Nedda Shrum) a shrewish woman. It is a busy time for the inn which is overflowing with people come for King Herod's Census. Staying at the inn are Arod (Scott Smith), a wood dealer, and his domineering wife Rachel (Sandy Jones), and two centurions (Pat Lawson and Mike Kieley). The shrewd merchant, Barshan (Larry Nelson), gives his lame slave girl Nuna (Colleen Malone) to the inn keeper for board. The greatest guest of the inn that night is the troubled widow of a Roman general, Octavia (Becky Bailey). With her is her maid (Maragret Codispoti). Each person finds a little joy and happiness thru Nuna's goodness and the birth of a babe. The Nativity was created by Allison Green, Brad Hiltscher and Dave Wales. Christmas at FUHS was ended joyously by a two week vacation.

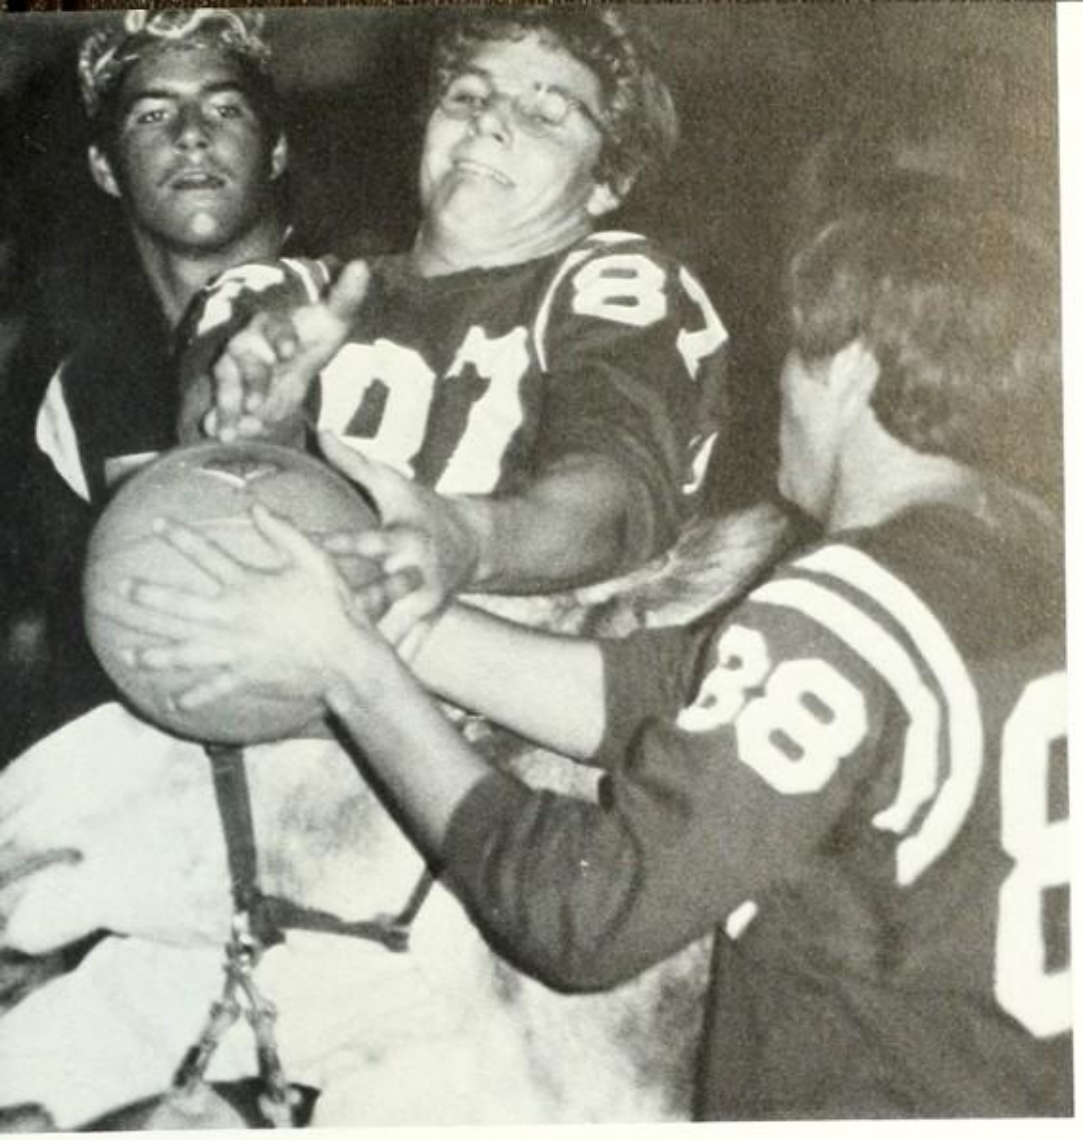


Christmas '71

Student Auction

During the week before Easter vacation a mass slave sale of all willing volunteers was held at lunch. Each day boys were called to the platform and auctioned off to become the property of some female bidder. On Friday, the last day before vacation, all the slaves came to school dressed to their owner's specifications. Huge orange pumpkins and sexy street-walkers wearing backless fringe dresses were the guises of the crazily dressed slaves who had to give into their owner's every whim.





Donkey Basketball

A hilarious spectacle took place in the boys' gym on Sat., March 18. This of course was the annual donkey basketball game. With great courage Fullerton High's varsity men rode their stubborn, bucking donkeys against Sunny Hills. It proved to be an exciting game as each player coaxed his donkey to the basket and attempted to make a clear shot into the basket while sitting on his donkey. Even though not many points were scored, the game proved to be entertaining and extremely fun for both players and spectators.

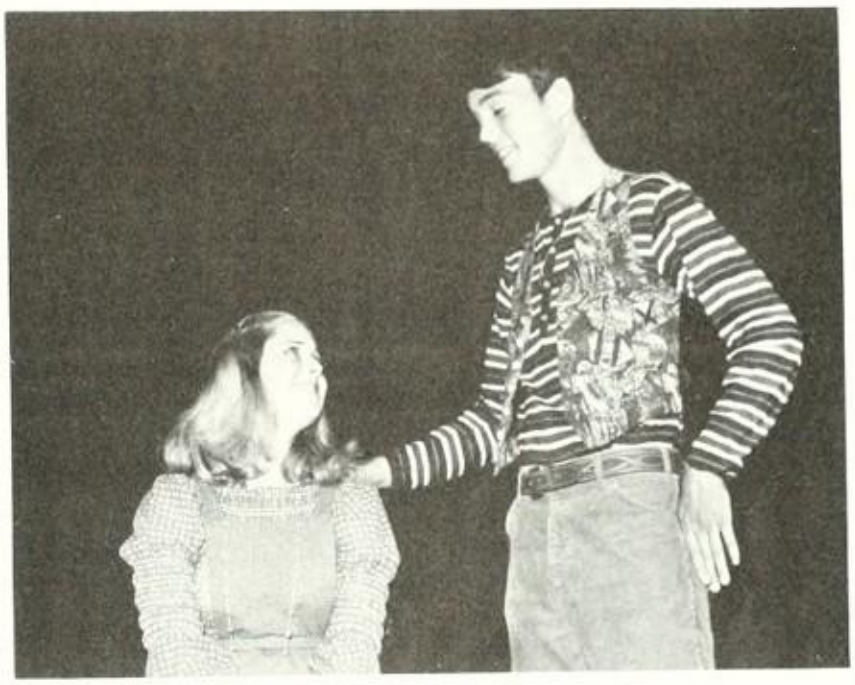
Arsenic and Old Lace

In the spirit of nostalgia the first drama production in Plummer since its re-dedication was ARSENIC AND OLD LACE. This was also the first play that Mr. Peters directed here in Plummer. The play, set in 1940-Brooklyn in the Brewster family home, tells the adventures of two maiden aunts, Abby (Carol Hybl) and Martha (Jackie Booher). These kindly old ladies contrive to murder twelve old gentlemen such as Mr. Gibbs (Brad Higbee), with poisoned Elderberry wine to save them from years of loneliness. The comedy begins when the aunts' newphew Mortimer (Mike Vendrell) finds out about their habits. He thinks it is the work of his brother Teddy (Brad Hiltscher). Teddy believes that he is President Theodore Roosevelt. When Mortimer finds that his aunts are mental cases, too, he concludes that the madness is hereditary and tells his fiancee Elaine Harper (Gena Kuenzli), the Reverend Harper's (Curtis Buck) daughter. The plot thickens as the twelve bodies in the cellar become thirteen on the arrival of another mad Brewster, Jonathan (Mark Safarik) who brings two friends with him - the alcoholic Dr. Einstein AND Mr. Spenalzo (Scott Smith), the thirteenth body! If this plot has confused you, imagine how confused Mortimer is while trying to decide what to do about his aunts, getting Jonathan and Dr. Einstein (Steve Premo) out of the house, doing something about the bodies in the cellar, and appeasing the police! The policemen are Officers Brody (Dave Wales), Klein (Rick Chastain), and O'Hara (Jon Bouvia) - the dumb "temporary" cop who wants to be a playwrite. The light comedy is resolved as Lt. Rooney (Ralph Wallace) and Mr. Witherspoon (Pat Lawson), the superintendent of Happy Dale Sanitarium come on the scene. Jonathan is taken into custody, Teddy is committed, the aunts go along with Teddy to Happy Dale, and Mortimer finds that he is not really a Brewster and can marry Elaine. As a last gesture the aunts offer Mr. Witherspoon his LAST glass of Elderberry wine!

Romance At Rustlers' Gulch



The original musical melodrama written and directed by Mrs. Booth was such a success last year that the Drama Department produced another. ROMANCE AT RUSTLERS' GULCH again directed by Mrs. Booth was a huge success. One reason this type of drama is so pleasant is the fact that the audience takes part in the production. They can boo and hiss the villain Haw Baron (Brad Hiltscher) as he underhandedly tries to control all the ranches in the country and forces our heroine Kate Hartwell (Peggy Wood) to marry him. The hero Pete Armstrong (Doug Lowe) is always greeted with hoorays and loud clapping as he saves the day and tames our willful heroine. The ladies in the audience sigh at the romantic scenes between Sam Roberts (Alan O'Hern), and Becky, Kate's sister, (Sandy Jones). They laugh at the match-making antics of Aunt Abby (Kris Safarik) and understand the fatherly concern of Ben Hartwell (Dave Wales). The Sheriff (Greg Sneller) is called to take care of Haw as he is foiled again and like every happy ending the love birds get the knot tied and live happily ever after.

Plummer. . .
Take Two

Plummer Auditorium was once again opened for use this year. On January 19 and 20 rededication ceremonies were conducted in which area high schools gave performances in singing, dancing, and other entertainment. Since 1967 the auditorium stood vacant because of its unsafe construction. After it was rehabilitated new larger seats replaced the old ones, more light fixtures were added and the huge pipe organ was repaired among other additions. Once again the auditorium was filled with people and performers. Now, not only Fullerton High but the community also has a fine place for giving plays and concerts for the benefit of everyone.

Student Lobby

Recently organized Student Lobby, is a representative organization comprised of five students from each grade level. The students not only represent the student body, but they also present recommendations and opinions to the executive board concerning impending legislation. Each semester Student Lobby members are elected in a general election, and from them a chairman is selected. This year Steve Premo served as 1st semester chairman and Paul Simon filled the 2nd semester position. With a meeting held every other Tuesday the Student Lobby functions more satisfactorily than the former Student Congress.

ICC

This year the Inter Club Council was kept busy publicizing active clubs and bringing inactive clubs back to life. Under president Becky Bailey's leadership I.C.C. conducted a Club Week in order to increase participation in the many campus organizations. Revision of the outdated I.C.C. constitution was made this year, and a new activity, the "Cinco de Mayo" Festival was planned to give clubs an opportunity to raise money and create more interest in the various clubs. Not only were many clubs made active, but a liaison between Student Government, the Administration, and clubs was accomplished.

Election Board

Election days proved to be a great improvement this year. Under the direction of Debbie Glaser, the board accomplished these advancements by conducting elections in an efficient manner. More registration tables were set up, sample ballots were posted in the breezeway, and the polls were roped off. Through excellent organization, results were given almost two hours earlier than has been customary, and a larger turnout of voters was exhibited.

Planning and presenting our school assemblies keep Jon Bouvia and his committee running. The Assembly Committee must cater to the tastes and interests of the F.U.H.S. student body. This year the fascinating programs included: Mogul Ski Club, The Split Seconds, the band Sound Investment, Hudson and Landry, Redlands and Cypress College Choirs and of course, the Pow-Wow, Pep, and Homecoming assemblies.

Cherokee Dancers

A great tradition at Fullerton High is the unique Cherokee dancers who perform at pre-game activities during football season. This year's Indian maidens were Debbie Glaser, Iliana Hernandez, and Kathy Johnson. Gaining the spotlight at home games, the Cherokees did their warrior dance around a blazing fire to a new arrangement of a traditional Indian song. No longer was a spotlight used in the field, but the Cherokees' costume and the Indian fire were preserved. At the big and little tea, the Cherokee dancers performed a new dance to the music of the "Electric Indian." Because the Cherokees are something no other school has, they feel that they should have a larger part in promoting school spirit. Perhaps next year's Cherokee dancers will be able to perform at other activities and receive their well-deserved recognition.

Marching Band

The Marching Band, under the direction of Terry Blackley, is led down the field at every home game by our high-stepping Drum Major Clark Emerson. Many long hours are spent getting the band polished to perfection for the shows. Not only do the band members have to learn their music, but they must also learn to march eight steps to every yard line. At an exhibition held in Brea Stadium, the Marching Indians got outstanding reviews. Several articles from the Pleiades newspaper repeated their praises. Unlike other schools, Fullerton has the ability to put on excellent half-time shows because the band and drill team work well together. Contemporary music like "Jesus Christ Super Star," "Hair" and "Tommy", plus new arrangements of old favorites, bring half-time appeal to all.

Jazz Band

All those weirdo musicians walking around campus have been rounded up by Mr. Blackley to play their hearts out in the Fullerton Union High Jazz Band. This explains all those good sounds coming from the band room after school. No, really each member of the Jazz Band is a musician in his own right. Members are selected by Mr. Blackley, so the band is an honor as well as a responsibility because jam sessions are on the group's own time. In the previous two years Jazz Band has entered many competitions and has won high honors. The members are different from the traditional bands because each of them wears a unique outfit.

Concert Band

The Concert Band is composed of about seventy-five music students to make one of Fullerton High's largest bands. At the opening of the Plummer Auditorium they were the only band that received a standing ovation. They will go into competition and try to keep their straight superior ratings, as they are the only band in Orange County that has kept these ratings. They participated in two district festivals in Rio Hondo and Fullerton, and in one regional festival in Santa Ana.

Pep Band

If you have ever turned around at a football game to find a tuba staring you in the face, you have met the Pep Band. The Pep Band is an organization that has provided music at all the away football games and many of the pep rallies. It is a group of enthusiastic students who add a lot of color and excitement to our school activities. So hail to the real victors valiant and root for your favorite tuba.

Madrigals

The F.U.H.S. Madrigal Singers share the honor of performing for many clubs and organizations. Their style of music was both appreciated and admired by the school and community throughout the year.

The Girls' Choir of Fullerton High School demonstrated their ability to attain high standards through many fine concerts this year. As Mrs. Kill said, Girls' Choir was "A thoroughly charming and sophisticated group."

S.T.A.G.E.

"Lights, Camera, Action!" would never happen at FUHS if it was not for the stage crew. Stage crew not only does lighting, sound and set for the Drama Department's Plays, the Talent Show and Dance Concert, but at every assembly they are hard at work behind the scenes. These students deserve much credit. It takes special training to handle a spotlight, adjust a mike or dutchman a set. The music the song leaders dance to, the spotlight at the Pow Wow assembly, the mikes for student forums are all entrusted to the stage crews' capable hands.

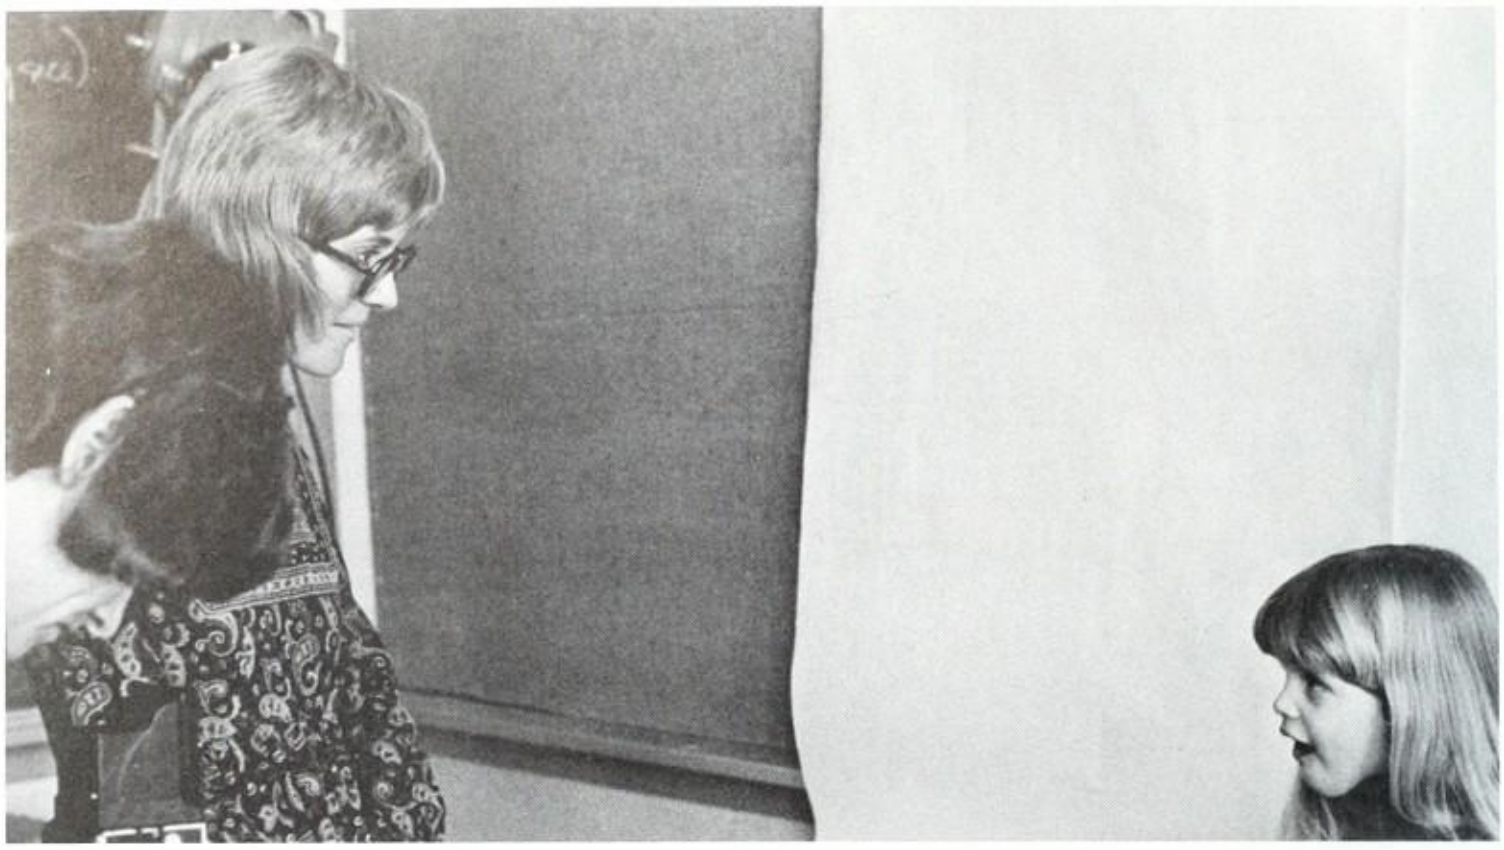
Debbie Beckman and Stacie Beam-Managers

"What is this thing called Dance" is what Dance Club tries to teach its members. It is also the title of the opening dance in the spring concert. This dance choreographed and performed by the GAA dancers is designed to inform the audience to "What the art of dance is." The club managed by Stacie Beam and Debbie Beckman gives students interested in dancing in the concert a chance to perform regardless of whether or not they are in Dance Company. The club meets every week of the second semester and is open to all girls and boys who want to dance.

Photo Club



John McCarron, President

Photography is a relatively new class on Fullerton's campus, and the photography club is doing its best to introduce photography to the school as a fine art. Everyone has seen the fine work of the students in the Administration building and library. The club also sells photo books containing examples of the creative projects of the club. You can imagine the fun this club has in their new, improved dark room.

Art Club

The Art Club is set up to honor art students planning to major in that field and who have completed three or more semesters of art, maintaining a B average. Because of limited membership, applicants are selected by secret ballot of members and approval of advisors. Those desiring membership must submit a portfolio containing five pieces of work not done in class. The club's motto is, "If it feels good, do it creatively."

Thespians

"Act well your part, there all the honor lies" is the Thespians motto. This club is one of the most active on campus! Membership is an honor which all drama students strive for. Applicants must earn 10 points and work in two major productions in order to qualify. Points are earned by acting, and backstage and committee work. Once the 10 points are earned the prospective members are initiated in a formal installation, where the members present a ceremony going thru the history of drama and present scenes from periods of the theater. There are usually two formal ceremonies a year and old members are invited to attend. Besides the typical breaksales to earn money, the Thespians sell refreshments at plays and present the annual Thespian's Talent Show. Students this year were able to perform the acts in the newly restored Plummer Auditorium. Another project this year was the presenting of Girl Date in a 1950 Sox Hop style.

Mime Troupe

Mime Troupe is a group which is sponsored by Thespians with the purpose of creating an interest in the art of pantomime. Once a year try-outs are held for positions in the troupe. Applicants are observed as they paint imaginary walls, drink imaginary milk, and jump a make-believe jump rope. When performing, the Mime Troupe is costumed in black with painted black features on clown white faces. This year the club presented a workshop at the Hintington Beach Drama Festival.

Poetry Club

The Poetry Club does a lot more than just read poetry. The motto of this club gives a very good definition of its activities: "Fun, Fantasy, and Friendship." In addition to writing, reading, and learning to appreciate poetry, one member states, "I think the Poetry Club really helps me. I meet people and make new friends, besides learning about poetry." The club has held swim and Christmas parties, attended the Renaissance Festival, gone on a walking expedition and visited Huntington Library.

Drama Club

Surely you've heard of the "Lunch Box Theater." This is the big project Drama Club undertakes throughout the year. For one thin dime it is possible to leave the busy bustle of student life and retreat into the world of the theater. Scenes, short plays, monologs and impressions are some of the material presented by the club members. This year Drama Club also performed "Cinderella" for the special training school at La Vista. The money the club earns during the year is used for an "Academy Awards Ceremony." The Drama Club Members elect the people they believe to be the most talented actor and actress and present the trophies at the awards assembly. The Club's goal is to give students interested in Drama a place to explore their talents and interests.

Students going to football games this year undoubtedly saw the clever signs posted in the stadium and heard the cheering and yelling of many spirited students. Those students were probably members of the F.U.H.S. Pep Club. Throughout the year spirit and high morale were boosted at various sports events by the loud cheering of members of the Pep Club. Under the leadership of Jamie Arnstein, Pep Chairman, the club was able to participate at many of the sports events.

Campus Life

Campus Life attracted many students at Fullerton High this year. Believing in the "Balanced Life," the organization stressed the spiritual area of life, along with mental, physical, and social aspects. Campus Life gave the students a chance to explore and discuss their own feelings about their spiritual interests, and counseling was offered for those who desired a more personal relationship with God. Activities were incorporated among Orange County High Schools, and many participants included Fullerton High students. Some of the fun events were the Haunted Warehouse at Halloween and a huge 72-hour New Year's party. Through Campus Life's sincere efforts to give spiritual fulfillment, many students have received direction to their lives.

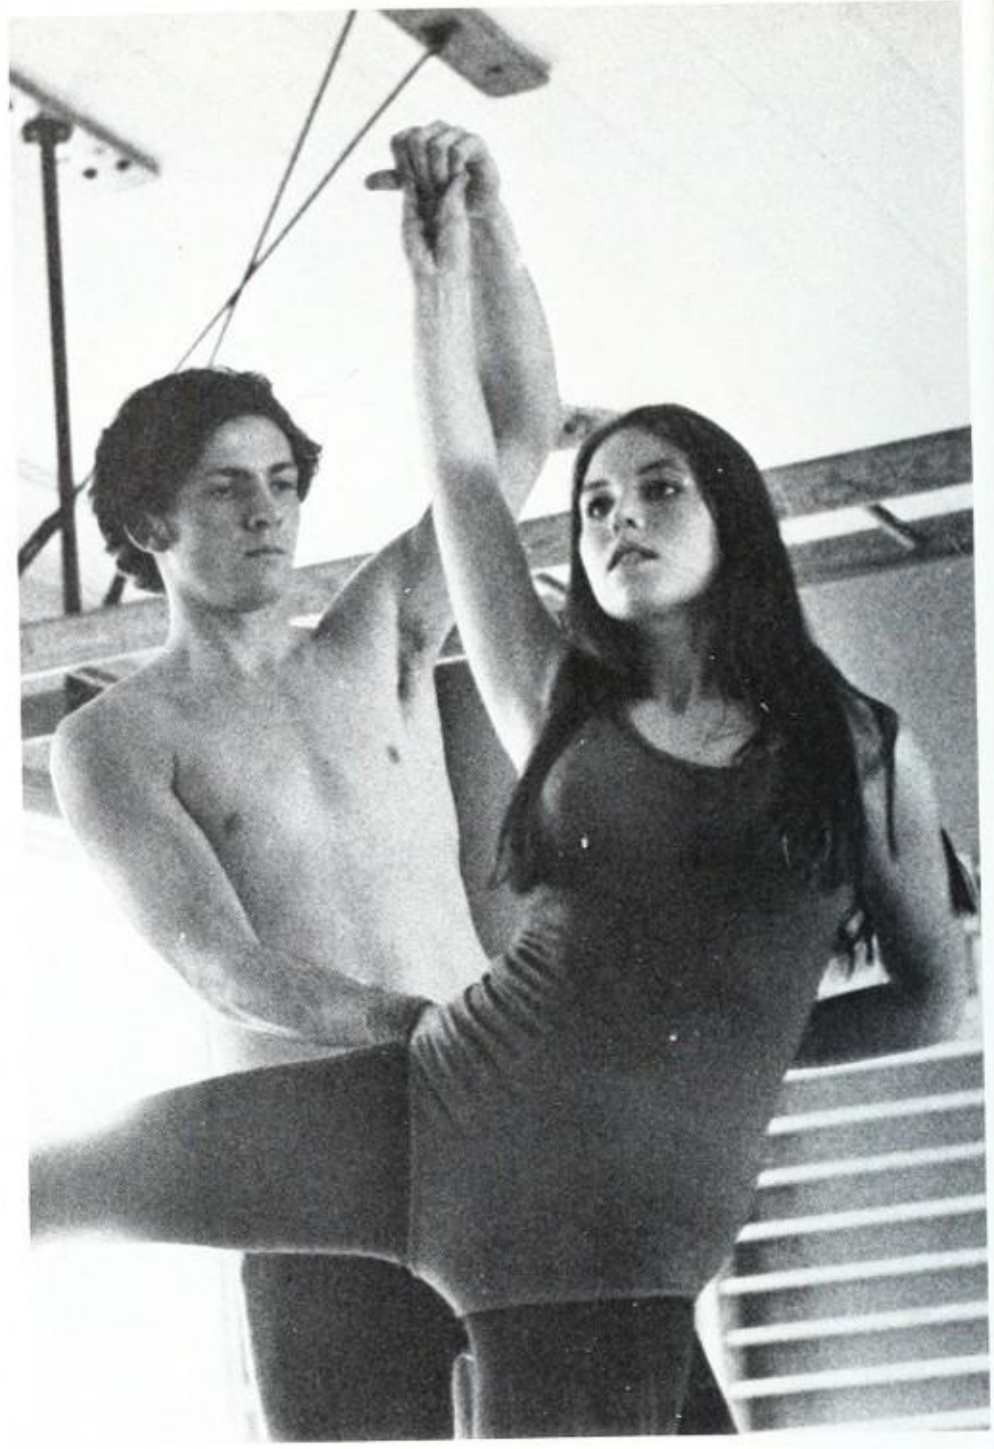
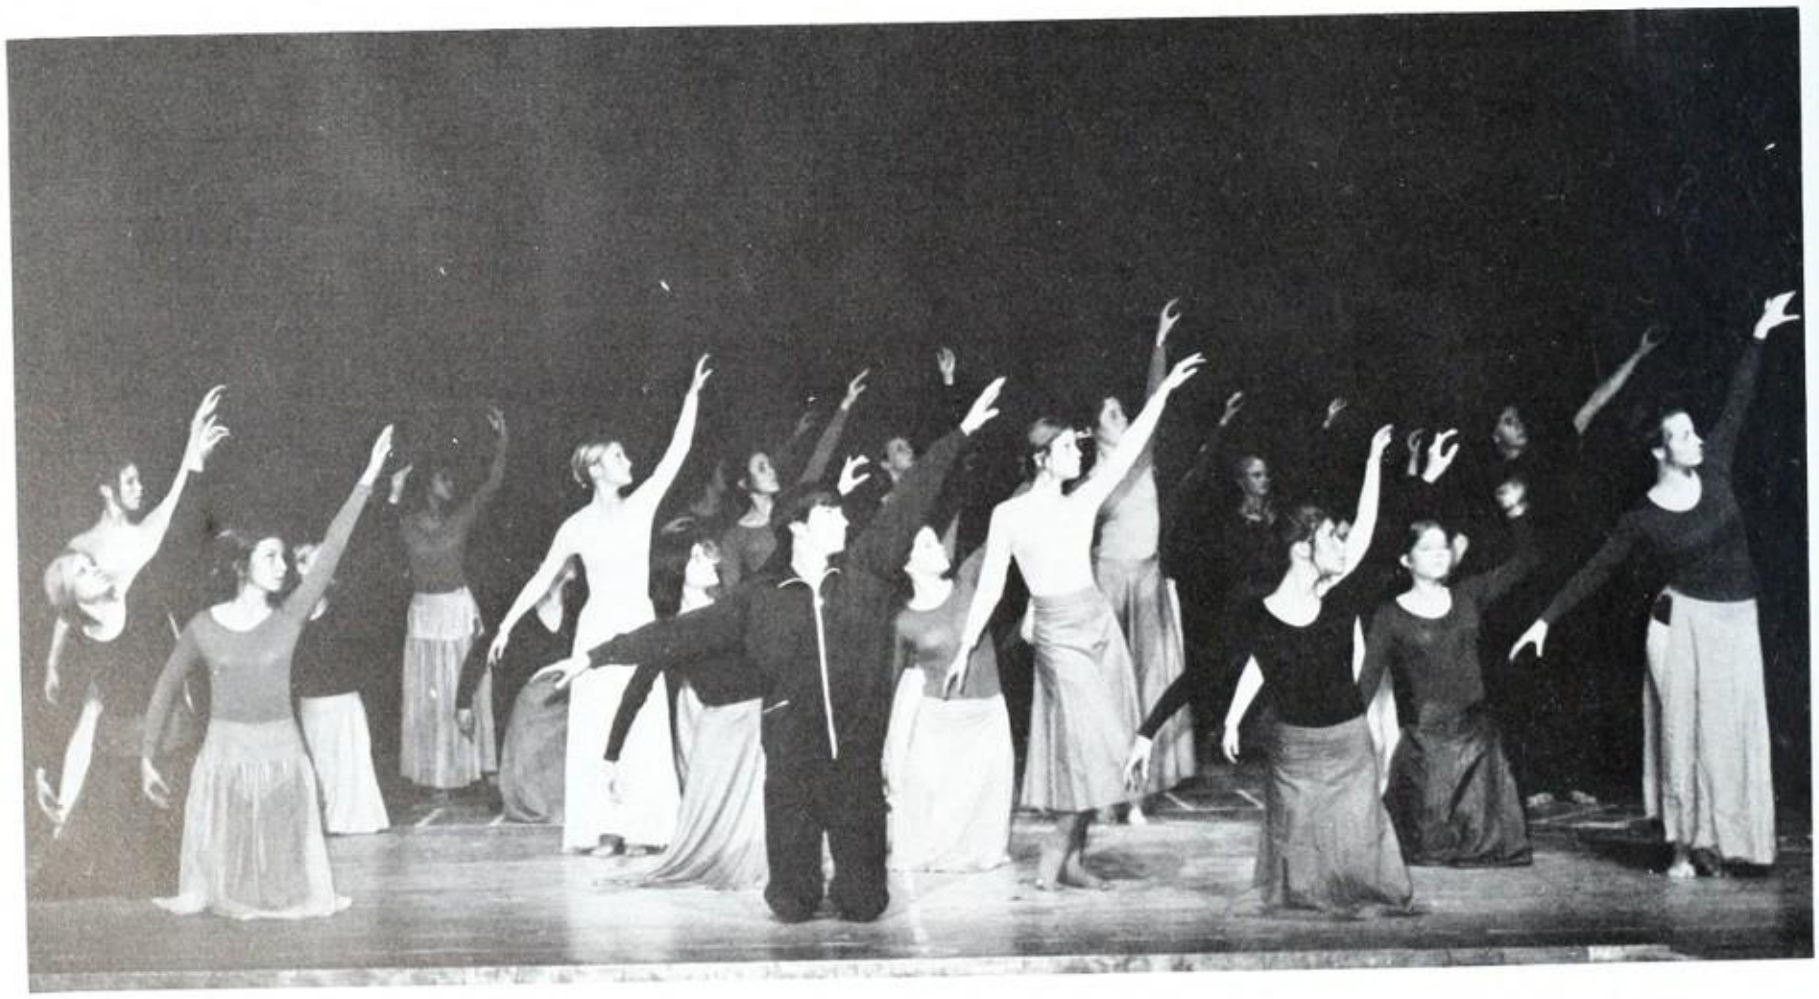
Dance Company





A very talented group on campus is the Dance Company. Comprised of selected dancers, the company performs in school and community concerts. This year the group earned a fine reception in the Cal State concert, in which area high schools performed. At the end of the year the annual dance concert is given in which a dance scholarship is awarded to the most outstanding dancer. Each year as tryouts are held a whole new group of dancers is formed, each contributing an individual style to make Dance Company an outstanding group.

AFS

International Friendship was the goal promoted this year by the American Field Service. Although the main purpose of the club is to send students abroad and to bring foreign students here, a lack of membership made the club unable to raise money. It is hoped that next year new interest will be promoted among students so that international friendship at FUHS can be preserved.

Forensics

The Forensic Club endeavors to stimulate and build the powers of organization, logic, and argumentation into everyday communication. Such development is reached by speech tournaments, classwork, and field trips. Students have the opportunity to earn rewards and honors in tournaments. Fullerton has competed locally and nationally in the art of forensics.

Pleiads

Pleiades is an honored organization. Students with a high grade point average and meeting the various requirements of the California Scholarship Federation qualify for membership. Usually the club takes a field trip each semester to an educational institution. Awards are given to graduating seniors who are life members.

Biology-Ecology Club

The Biology and Ecology Clubs have joined forces to form one of the most popular clubs on campus. One of its main goals is to acquaint its members with vocational opportunities in Biology. This is achieved through guest speakers, films, and field trips. Another important purpose of the club is to make its members aware of the growing problem of pollution and show them what can be done to improve man's existence on Earth. Besides these problems, these concerned students have fun and help others; an example is their attendance at the Christmas Party at Fairview. We also hear they throw a great potluck.

With the motto of "Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve," the Future Farmers of America completed another successful year on campus. Tom Evans, President of Fullerton FFA led the active organization in various events such as field days and fairs. Among the goals which FFA achieved this year were cooperation and outstanding service to the community, and the development of strong leadership qualities among members. With the worthwhile activities and fine service and leadership shown through the year, the Future Farmers of America have continued to be a successful club on campus with a busy future ahead.

Idakas

As Penny Webster, Idaka's first President said, "Each year presents a bigger job-a higher hill. May Idakas continue to grow and grow and grow, and with each new hill may it leave behind a pathway of deep accomplishments . . ." Indeed, this was fulfilled this year through the service of Idakas to F.U.H.S. and the community. Molly Andrews, President, directed the activities held this year. Among the projects were working at Muckenthaler Institute, giving a Christmas party at Fairview with Key Club, serving at sports banquets, collecting money for CARE, staffing the Helping Hands Playroom for physically handicapped children, holding a car rally with Key Club, and planning the annual Pow Wow dance. Every Idaka feels pride in belonging to this organization and in being of service to others.

The Newspaper Staff had to survive several catastrophies this year, the worst being a severe cut-back on funds. For a time it was thought there might not be a newspaper, but the staff felt otherwise. With a great deal of hard work, they managed to find a new printer and sell enough ads to squeak through. They published the paper on the average, every three weeks. The staff also moved to a new room in the English Building overlooking the academic court. The move meant transferring everything, including the vintage refrigerator. The staff has many fun times together, as well as many rush times before deadlines. Each reporter on the staff was assigned a beat for more adequate coverage of school events. The newspaper also ran in-depth stories on world and national news events that concerned youth. Topics covered included the 18 year old vote, abortion, shoplifting, and various religions. The staff's motto is "Do you have a restless urge to write?"

MANAGERS: Linda Heideman, Badminton; Melissa Woody, Volleyball; Sue Thomas, Softball; Kathy Cummings, Swimming; Tiny Navarrate, Basketball; Carolyn Wright, Tennis.

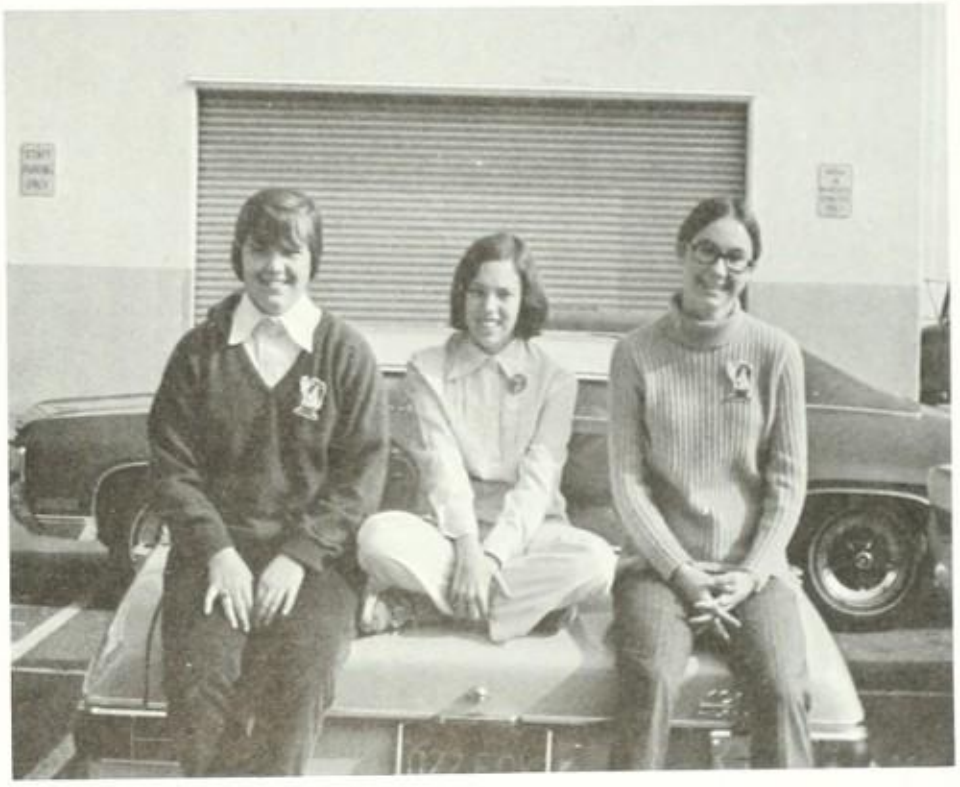
For many girls, sports is an important part of school, and this year the Girls' Athletic Association fulfilled this desire to compete in athletics. Not only did girls enjoy participating in after school sports, but new friendships and leadership were developed. President Robin Reid led the organization in various money-making projects such as the Willie Ugh pin sale. With the spirit of win-win-win, the GAA ended another successful year.

REPRESENTATIVES: Alicia Lozano, Freshman; Roberta Halog, Senior; Katie Riutcel, Sophomore, Mindy Martin, Junior.

OFFICERS: Barbie Lawrence, Recording Secretary; Kris Van Bladeren, Secretary; Linda Schmidt, Treasurer; Jamie Arnstein, Vice-President.

GAA Cabinet

Robin Reid, President



Tracey Boyd, Publicity; Janine Wright, Big "F" President; Kathy Bailey, Historian.

Varsity Club

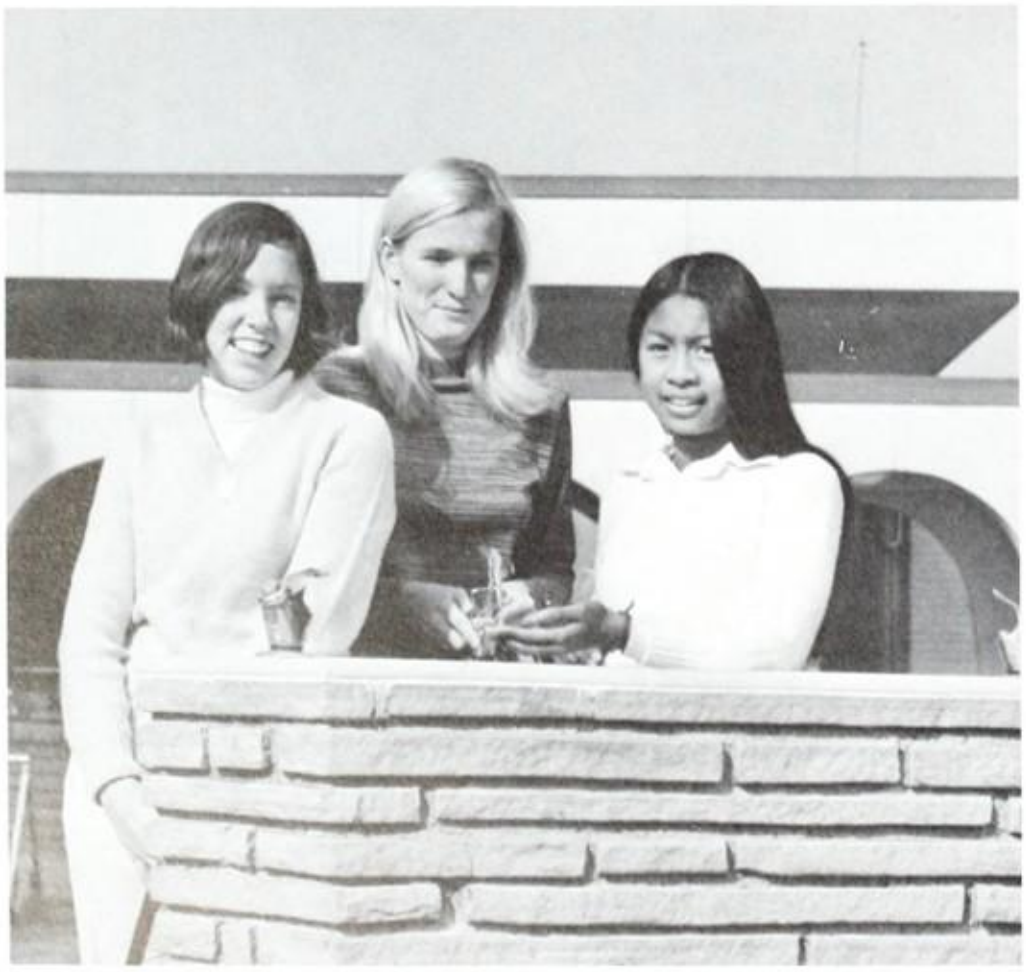
To develop leadership and serve the school and athletic programs was the goal of the Varsity Club this year. Under the direction of Club president Casey Collins, F.U.H.S. athletes participated in the various athletic programs. In order to become a member of Varsity Club, one must have earned a varsity letter, been able to compete in athletics, and never have dropped a sport. Those applying must have attended two consecutive meetings before a club patch could be bought and application approved. Those who were accepted this year showed leadership and willing service - just two of the qualitites of a true athlete.

FRONT ROW: Steve Smith, Gary Kaihera, Buck Frates, Gene Newman, Craig Leicht, Dave Duke, Barry Loyd, Bill Newton, John Stone, Dennis Mahoney, Bob Sattler, George Emigh, Pete VanHorne, Clark Emerson. ROW 2: Lee Launer, Joe Valenzuela, Bob Melendez, Randy Haughn, Bob Chavez, Casey Collins, Bob Godfrey, Larry Markin, Terry Carroll. ROW 3: Jeff Haspell, Bob Ball, John Macrorie, Rodney Simon, Tom Summerford, Al Levassiur, Bob Wright, John Wortmann, Joe Kolb, Steve Pollard, Bob Everett, Ron Winn, Chris Kamp, Mike Wolfe, Jeff Hutchison, Lee Welty, Brad Liedtke, Steve Pacotti.

President Casey Collins

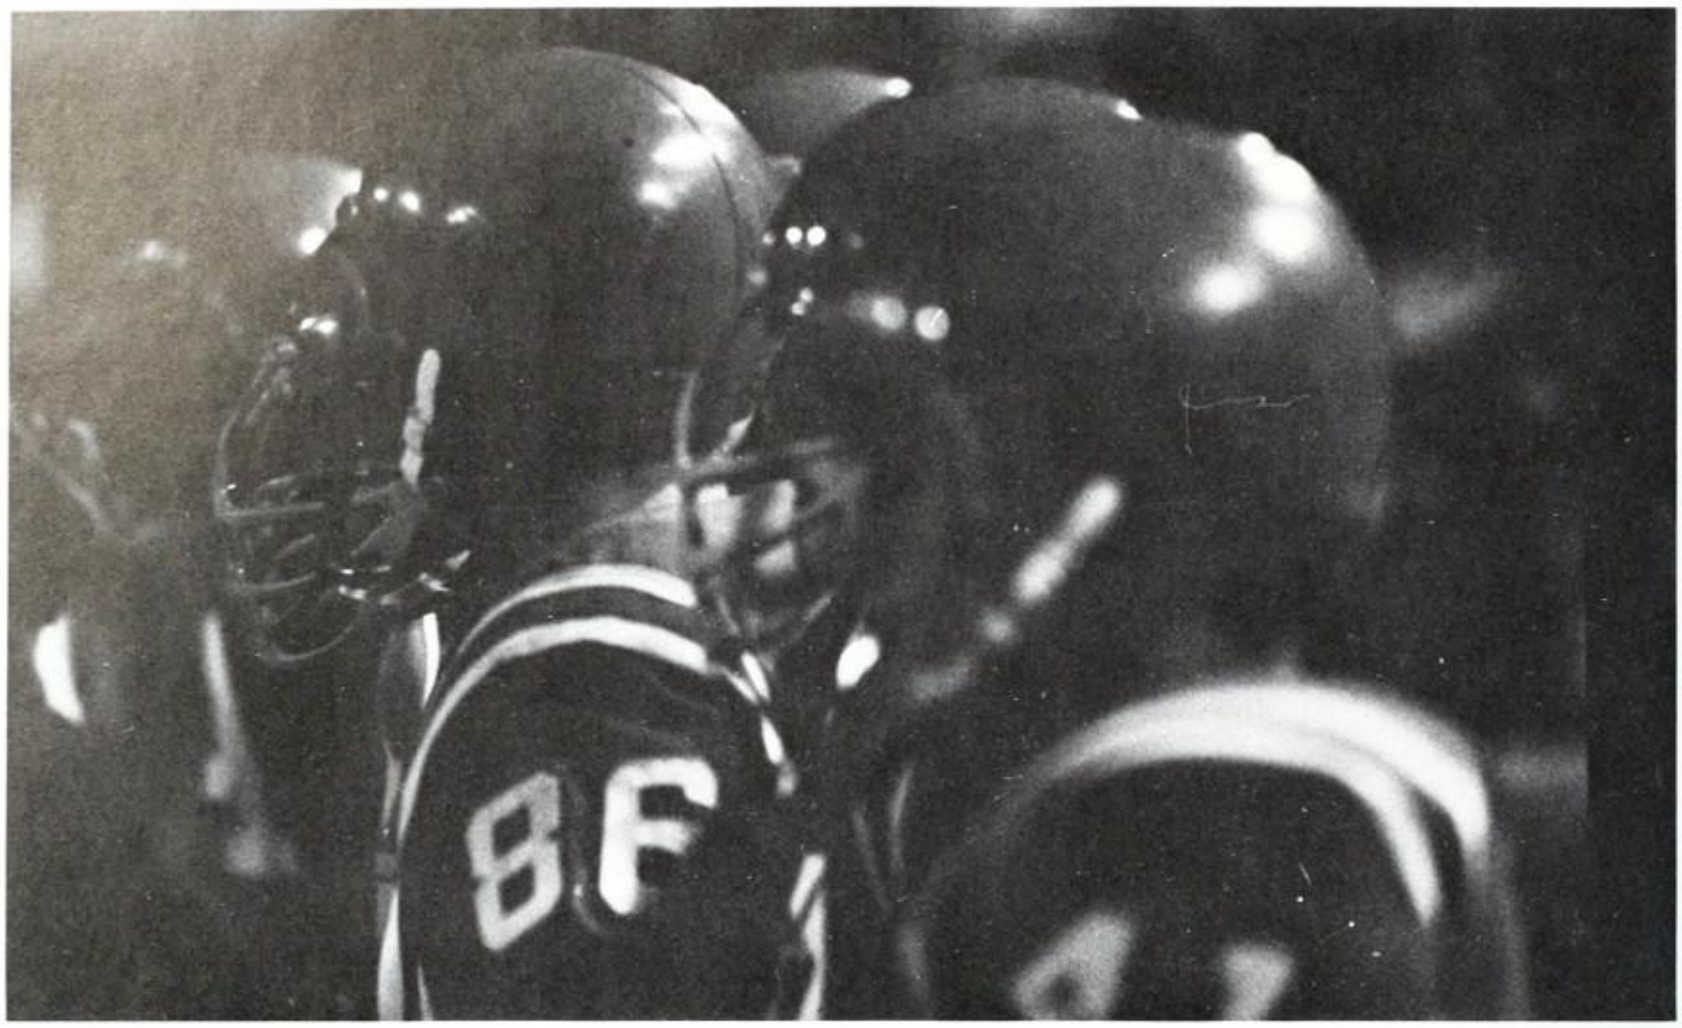
Big F

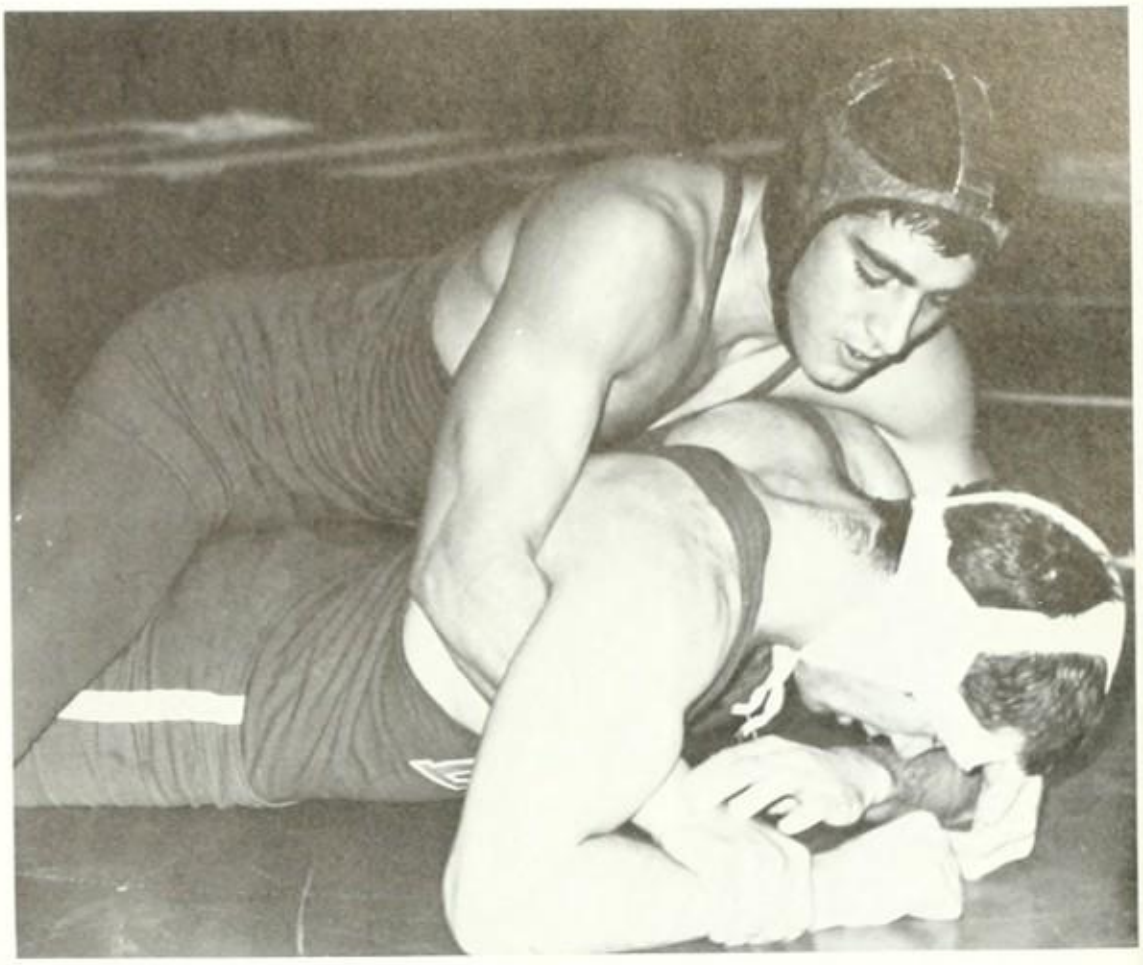
This year the Big F was headed by Janine Wright who, like other Big F members, earned a total of 1200 G.A.A. points in order to obtain membership. Membership is achieved by participating in G.A.A. activities, which does not mean that all members are exceptionally well-skilled, but rather that they enjoy sports. Set up originally as a service organization, the Big F assisted the G.A.A. in many ways this year.



Members: Janine Wright, Kathy Cummings, and Roberta Halog.

athletics





Just as the mountain to be climbed is never what is tested, the real reason for competing is to test one's self and discover one's limits.

Mark:
I bad you weren't in any of my classes. Remmember Miss Dematto's class. That was, boring. Oh, well, thats over with. Hasn't the year gone by fast.
See you next year in design. I was going to take D+P II but I decided Com Art would benefit me alot more!
Well have fun this summer.

In Memoriam. . . .

Steve Lugar, senior; Gene Crawford, Junior; and Louis Boyer, custodian

I watched a sail until it dropped from sight
Over the rounding sea. A gleam of white,
A last far-flashed farewell, and, like a thought
Slipt out of mind, it vanished and was not.

Yet to the helmsman standing at the wheel
Broad seas still stretched beneath the gliding keel.
Disaster? Change? He felt no slightest sign.
Nor dreamed he of that horizon line.

So may it be, perchance, when down the tide
Our dear ones vanich. Peacefully they glide
On level seas, nor mark the unknown bound
We call it death— to them 'tis life beyond.

(author unknown)

Mark -
To my great inner tube leader, I extend a hearty thanks for making the Key Club trips most enjoyable
You are one of the most wonderful people I know, not only as a student but also as a friend. Beneath the student, serious and aggressive, is the warm individual that has been so much fun to share with Keep in touch next year and may your life be full of all those things that you hope and strive for

Fondly,
Mrs S.

. . . therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

from "Desiderata"

Our special thanks to Dave Ogden for his many useful photographs.

Mark,
it was a real laugh having you in the same math class. Of course, Mrs. Dillate was a the fun. Although the other half of the time, you know you were always complaining about her methods & teaching, you know that you'll miss her as much as I will because she was really sweet.

Margaret

P.S. Hope to see you in summer school and I hope you're better in science than you were in math. Cause if you're not you won't be my partner.

Mark, I'm glad I got to know you this year, cause you're a real good friend. I hope next year we can have as much fun. Have a good summer. Love, Cindy Beckman

Dear Mark — Some crazy times in English, & we've had. It makes me sad to think I never knew you all these years. Then I know you for one brief semester, and now, once again, I'll lose you as if I never knew you. You really are a fantastic person with much potential and though it is hard to really get to know someone in the sterile atmosphere of school, I'm glad I began to w. th you. You have something extremely special inside you — the ability to care, and I'm glad because I believe no one can destroy the goodness in you. Take Care, Mark!

Love, Ruth

Mark,

I don't no what to say. Maybe if I paint a picture you'll understand. I hope your still going to sign up for the art club. It won't be much fun unless you do. I may have cut you down on your drawings, but I hope you know I was just kidding, there all fantastic. Really! Well! Have fun this summer and all the time ahead. Best Wishes and Luck

Love always

Mark:
History + algebra were sure fun. Have a great summer + stay smart!
Pam Devereux

Mark: I couldn't see if there was room for me in your class, but I'm sure looking forward to it. Teaching should be fun. I'll bring some of my paintings to show you. Thanks for everything. Sincerely, Marty

Dear Mark
Thanks for everything. I'm looking forward to your class. Sincerely, Marty

Dear Mark
It was too bad that you weren't in any classes this year. I'll be in your class next year. Hope you can be in it. We can be as "hi" as we want to be. Thanks for everything. Sincerely, Mrs. R.

Dear Mark
It really too bad that you haven't been in any classes this year. I'll be in your class next year. Hope you can be in it. We can be as "hi" as we want to be. Thanks for everything. Sincerely, Mrs. R.

Mark
I really enjoyed having you in class this semester. I hope you were challenged a little during the semester. I know there were days it was a struggle to get a word out of you, but I'm glad you decided to participate on a regular basis. I enjoyed reading your papers and I look forward to seeing you in class next year. Have a great summer and I'll see you in the fall.
Mrs. Conrad

This semester in English I have gotten to know you through English and K-Club. I know you will pull off your senior year. But its good to have friends from every class year "73". I will miss our discussion of philosophical ideas and bumping the stupidity of Susan Burns. But all comes to pass. Mark a true friend and I hate to part you or it. Have a very nice summer and I don't see you this summer

I'll see you next year as a senior
